LEAGUE OF NATIONS CONDEMNS JAPANESE FOR CHINA INVASION

Canada Votes to Give "Moral Support" to Chinese — Assembly Members Consider How Far They Can Go Towards Aiding Nanking — Hope to Restore Peace Through Conciliation

GENEVA, Oct. 6 (P).—The League of Nations Assembly tonight formally condemned Japan for her invasion of China, voted "moral support" to China in the present conflict and issued invitations to its member states who are adherents to the Nine-Power Treaty to a conference on the Far Eastern situation.

Canada, which refrained from voting yesterday when the Far Eastern advisory committee of twenty-three nations agreed to submit to the Assembly a resolution advocating these moves, was among the approving Governments tonight.

AWAITED INSTRUCTIONS
Senator Raoul Dandurand, representing the Dominion, explained yesterday he withheld his vote as he had not then received adequate instructions from Ottawa. His affirmative ballot tonight presumably was the result of communication with his Government.

The Assembly adopted reports condemning Japan for invading Manchuria.

CONDEMNED AS VIOLATOR

U.S. Government in Accord With League on Japan's Aggression

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6 (P).—The United States Government formally condemned Japan tonight as a treaty violator in China, thus throwing its full moral support behind efforts of the League of Nations to halt the Far Eastern conflict.

The State Department announced: "The conclusions of this Government with respect to the foregoing (alleged treaty violations) are in general accord with those of the Assembly of the League of Nations."

FOLLOWS APPEAL
Closely following President Roosevelt's appeal at Chicago yesterday for concerted international action to restore world peace, the department's statement accused Japan of violating the Nine-Power Treaty and the Kellogg-Briand Pact, renouncing war, and the principles which "should govern the relationships between nations."

The pronouncement did not say whether the United States would accept the League's proposal for a conference of Nine-Power signatories to consider action, but it was predicted in authoritative circles that the proposal would be accepted.

This Government's formal condemnation of the Japanese military operations in China was expressed as follows:

THE STATEMENT
"In the light of the unfolded developments in the Far East, the Government of the United States has been forced to the conclusion that the action of Japan in China is inconsistent with the principles which should govern the relationships between nations and is contrary to the spirit of the League of Nations."

Freighter Run Ashore Is Refloated

SEATTLE, Oct. 6 (P).—The 5,630-ton freighter Charles Christensen, which tried to steam up Puget Avenue in a heavy fog this morning, was refloated late today by the tugboats Commissioner and Equator shortly before high tide.

When the ship went aground en route from Everett here today, it came within 200 feet of the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard G. Douglas, who said the impact shook the house.

Three Theatres Here Closed by Strike of Film Projectionists

Officials of Union and Famous Players Deadlocked In Negotiations at Vancouver—Most Motion Picture Houses in Province Closed

VICTORIANS had their entertainment facilities curtailed somewhat yesterday when three motion picture theatres were darkened due to a province-wide strike of projectionists. The theatres affected here were those of Famous Players' Canadian Corporation, Limited, namely the Capitol, Dominion and Atlas Theatres.

Independent local theatres, the Columbia, Plaza and Oak Bay, were open as usual and will continue to show their films today.

At a late-hour last night, no agreement had been reached between Famous Players and the projectionists' union on the Mainland, and as a result the affected houses will be closed today, pending a settlement of the trouble.

The Provincial Government was apprised of developments in the dispute between motion picture projectionists and the theatres early, but declined immediate comment.

The development came as a surprise, because the Province thought recent negotiations between all parties had brought an amicable settlement, in which the Province itself agreed to suspend the operation of new provincial regulations affecting the projectionists.

Attorney-General Wikner, K.C., was interviewed in the morning by a delegation of independent Mainland projectionists.

Japanese at Bay With Chinese Now Taking Offensive

Defenders Surge From Entrenchments All Along Front of Shanghai Battle—Japan Strikes From Air in Series of Raids but Without Achieving Any Major Damage

SHANGHAI, Oct. 7 (P).—Chinese forces took the offensive in a sharp counter-attack today in the battle for Shanghai. The Chinese surged from their entrenchments all along the front from the ruined Chapei native quarter on the edge of the International Settlement north almost the whole twenty-five miles to Lotien.

The war, however, remained a stalemate on all fronts. China's aggressive display showed she still was not exhausted in the defence of Shanghai, and Japan apparently was held at bay also in North China.

NO MAJOR DAMAGE
Japan again struck from the air in a series of raids on cities in Central and South China. None of the air attacks achieved major damage, Chinese officials declared.

Reports said at least a half dozen localities in Kiangsu and Anhwei Provinces were bombed. Chinese sources at Canton, the great southern port, said sixty-six Japanese planes participated in raids over a large area of Kwangtung Province, on the South China coast.

LOYALISTS ARE PUSHING NORTH

Spanish Government Patrol Report Covering Large Area of Territory

HENDAYE, Franco-Spanish Frontier, Oct. 6 (P).—Government patrols operating in the mountains of Northern Quercus and South-eastern Guadalupe Provinces, reported today they had covered about forty square miles on this vaguely-defined front.

While insurgent forces concentrated on capturing the remainder of Asturias' provinces in Northwest Spain and holding their lines on the Aragon Front, the Government patrols were pushing north in the area between Guadalupe and Teruel, with instructions to "go as far as you can."

Reports from the Spanish Government-held city of Mahon, on the Island of Minorca, said the city's 30,000 residents were threatened with starvation because the Valencian Government had failed to provide adequate food supplies.

CRICKET VETERAN DIES
TORONTO, Oct. 6 (P).—Joseph H. Gould, sixty-eight, "grand old man of Canadian cricket," died at his home here yesterday of pneumonia after a week's illness.

Mr. Gould, past president of the Toronto Cricket Umpires Association, contracted the disease when he refereed the season's final cricket match during a drizzling rain a week ago.

PRESS FOR EARLY REPLY

France and Great Britain Will Wait No Longer For Mussolini

LONDON, Oct. 6 (P).—France and Great Britain tonight decided to press Mussolini for an early response to their joint bid for tri-power discussion of Spanish volunteer withdrawal.

The two Governments, in view of new Italian aid to the Spanish insurgents, indicated their patience was not unlimited after Foreign Secretary Eden conferred with Prime Minister Chamberlain and Ambassador Charles Corbin, of France.

"The two Governments have agreed on the desirability of receiving an early reply from Italy," said a statement issued after the conferences.

The Cabinet meeting was believed to have endorsed the Franco-British stand in international affairs.

WAIT NO LONGER
With two wars threatening world peace, informed sources said the Cabinet had agreed to wait no longer in the face of what it considers evidence II Duce has sent more planes, as well as his son, to aid insurgent Generalissimo Francisco Franco in defiance of non-intervention pledges.

A new factor in the troubled situation, these sources declared, was the "legitimate" assumption President Roosevelt's Chicago speech aroused for Geneva to expect American collaboration.

WILL MAKE TAX LAW EFFECTIVE

Mutual Check to Be Made By Canada and United States

OTTAWA, Oct. 6 (P).—Canada's convention with United States in which the two countries agree to exchange tax information needed to check on those United States citizens avoiding taxes by operating in Canada, and the reverse, will be made effective shortly.

It was learned here today regulations have been drafted and will be proclaimed in The Canada Gazette. Regulations have already been promulgated in Washington.

Under this convention, dated December 30, 1936, and ratified at the last session of Parliament, the exchange of tax information will be retroactive to cover the calendar year 1936. Actions to obtain payment of overdue taxes, as well as applications for overpayments, are expected to follow.

The convention was ratified by the United States Congress only a few weeks ago.

Japan Calls Emergency Conference

TOKIO, October 7 (P).—The Japanese Foreign Office called an emergency conference today following United States action condemning Japan as a treaty violator.

Simultaneously, newspaper extras began appearing with the bare text of the pronouncement issued in Washington. No comment was published immediately.

Excitement spread through the streets as crowds clustered around the newsways.

Five Killed in Mexican Battle
MEXICO CITY, Oct. 6 (P).—Dispatches from Puebla tonight reported five farm workers were killed in a gun battle on the Teruel Hacienda, soon to be expropriated by Government decree.

CONSUL IS CHANGED
OTTAWA, Oct. 6 (P).—Hakki Chow, Chinese Consul-General for the past four years, is returning to China and will be succeeded here by Chang-Lok Chen, Chinese Consul-General at Calcutta, India, it was learned today.

JOBLESS MAKE DEMONSTRATION

Demand Work at Opening Of Newly-Elected Irish Parliament

DUBLIN, Oct. 6 (P).—A demonstration by unemployed today marked the opening of the newly-elected Dail Eireann (Parliament).

"A group of 400 jobless marched to Leinster House to interview members and demand work. Police cordons, drawn up at all approaches, blocked the marchers but later permitted a delegation to enter.

In the chamber four men were ejected from the public gallery after they arose and shouted they wanted work.

The session will be called upon to pass legislation putting into effect the new constitution that was approved in the July elections.

William O'Brien, Labor, asked President De Valera whether, in view of the peaceful state of the country, the Executive Council was prepared to grant an amnesty to political prisoners.

De Valera said the Government always was prepared to consider favorably the release of any prisoner provided it was satisfied the release consistent with maintenance of order and the carrying out of law.

DESTROY BREAKWATER TO BLOCK INVASION

CHEFOO, China, Oct. 6 (P).—The United States destroyer squadron No. 5 moved out of Chefoo Harbor today in response to a Chinese warning the breakwater protecting this Shantung Province port would be destroyed.

The Chinese warning led to the belief a Japanese invasion of Shantung Province through Chefoo was expected. Blowing up the breakwater would expose the harbor to the heavy North China Sea and make troops landing virtually impossible.

LATE NEWS BULLETINS

TURKEY BUILDING FLEET OF WAR PLANES
ISTANBUL, Turkey, Oct. 6 (P).—Turkey will build a powerful fleet of 1,000 new war planes, officials disclosed tonight. Orders for the planes already have been placed in the United States and other countries, officials announced, and flying schools already are under construction.

Premier Hepburn's Following Reduced by Three — Conservatives Gain Six Seats While Leader Goes to Defeat—Two Ministers Forced Out By Electors—Only Two Parties in House

House Leader of Opposition Wins Seat by Small Majority

TORONTO, Oct. 6 (P).—Rolling up a majority only a little short of the record high obtained in 1934 the Liberal party won a decisive victory in today's general election. Liberals won sixty-three seats, against sixty-six at the 1934 polling. Conservatives took twenty-three, a gain of six from their previous total of seventeen. Two Liberal-Progressives were elected, against four in 1934. One U.F.O. candidate was re-elected. The Co-operative Commonwealth Federation lost its single seat.

Counting Liberals, Liberal-Progressives, Independent Liberal and U.F.O., the Government will have sixty-seven supporters in the next Legislature, against seventy in the last.

Premier Mitchell Hepburn and the Government formed three and a half years ago thus secured another term of office and an endorsement from the electors on his labor, hydro and financial policies.

FAILS TO SECURE SEAT
In the new Legislature he will face a stronger Conservative opposition, although his rival for the Premier's chair, Hon. Earl Rowe, failed to secure a seat. He was defeated in Simcoe Centre by Hon. L. J. Simpson, Minister of Education.

Two Cabinet ministers tasted defeat along with Mr. Rowe. They were Hon. Duncan Marshall in Peel and Hon. J. A. Faulkner in Hastings West.

All the other Cabinet ministers, Mr. Hepburn in Elgin, Hon. Dr. L. J. Simpson in Simcoe Centre, Hon. Paul Leduc, Minister of Mines, in Ottawa East; Hon. Harry Nixon, Provincial Secretary, in Brant; and Hon. J. A. Faulkner in Hastings West.

HOUSE LEADER RETAINS SEAT

Former Conservative Premier Re-elected—Health Failed in Campaign

TORONTO, Oct. 6 (P).—George S. Henry, former Premier of Ontario, retained York East, which he has represented in the Legislature since 1913, in today's general election and tonight it was speculative whether Mr. Henry would retain the Conservative House leadership in the event of Hon. Earl Rowe, Ontario Conservative leader, defeated in Simcoe Centre, not taking a place in the Assembly.

Mr. Henry was stricken ill at a meeting during the campaign and spent the last week at home. Strain of long years in provincial and municipal politics has told on the sixty-six-year-old veteran.

SUCCEEDED FERGUSON
Mr. Henry was successively Minister of Agriculture, Minister of Public Works and Highways, and Premier and Minister of Education, assuming the last two portfolios in December, 1930, when Hon. G. Howard Ferguson resigned to become Canadian High Commissioner in England.

The Henry administration was defeated in the general election of 1934 and Hon. Earl Rowe was chosen Conservative leader. Mr. Henry became House leader.

The York East battle was a sea-saw affair. Several times Mr. Henry saw the lead slip to H. J. W. McConnell, Liberal. Third was A. H. Williams, C.C.F., and a poor fourth was John Dempster, Independent.

LESS THAN HALF OF VOTE LIBERAL

Compilation Shows Government Candidates Received 638,412 of 1,303,295 Votes Tabulated

TORONTO, Oct. 6 (P).—Tabulation of the popular vote in the Ontario election by the Canadian Press, at midnight tonight indicated Liberal candidates polled slightly less than 50 per cent of the total vote. The percentage was virtually the same as in the 1934 Ontario election when Liberals polled 754,243 and Conservatives 621,562 votes of a total of 1,361,825.

Following is the incomplete 1937 vote, totalling 1,303,295 at time of compilation: Liberal, 638,412; Conservative, 501,010; C.C.F., 75,548; Ind. Liberal, 18,902; Liberal-Progressive, 15,985; Farmer-Labor, 11,331; Labor, 10,985; and others, 31,220.

MANY CHANGES IN NEW COINS

Coronation Issue Features
Bronze Threepence and Small Silver Coins

Many unusual features are to be seen in the British coins struck to commemorate the Coronation of Their Majesties King George VI and Queen Elizabeth. A complete set of the nineteen new coins, minted for collectors and made available only during a limited period, was ordered by Joseph Rose, Ltd., Government Street, from the British Mint, through the Royal Bank of Canada, before the Coronation. The coins have now reached Victoria and are on display in the firm's window.

The set is a rare and valuable one, in that gold coinage is no longer in circulation. The four gold coins, half-sovereign, sovereign, £2 and £5, have a further distinctive feature, for the edges are not milled. All nineteen coins bear the image of the King, bare headed, facing to the left and the orthodox inscription, but on the obverse sides there is a variety of new designs.

In copper there are the farthing, halfpenny and penny, but next comes an entirely new coin, a twelve-sided, threepenny piece in bronze, almost twice as thick as the copper coins and of about the same diameter as the Canadian nickel.

A penny-piece in silver, a tiny coin seven-sixteenths of an inch in diameter, is a novel feature of the silver coinage. In the same metal there are coins to the value of 2d, 3d, 4d, 6d, 1s, 2s, 2s 6d, and 5s. Two threepenny-pieces and two shillings have been minted, each with different designs on the obverse sides. With the bronze coin there are, therefore, three different threepenny pieces.

It is noteworthy that, although the crown, the rose, the thistle and the shamrock, emblems of England, Scotland and Ireland, are featured in the different designs, that of Wales, the leek, nowhere appears.

LEGISLATURE IS CHANGED

Nineteen New Faces Will Be Seen at Opening of New House on Oct. 26

Twenty-nine old members and nineteen new members will take their seats at the opening of British Columbia's Nineteenth Legislative Assembly, to convene here at 3 p.m. on October 26. The Government will go into the House with one change, already made, in the Cabinet, that of Hon. G. S. Wismer, K.C., in place of Mr. Justice G. M. Sloan. Its supporting ranks, however, will be materially altered, with a voting strength of thirty seats after selection of a Liberal for Speaker.

The standing of all parties in the new House includes 31 Liberals, 8 Conservatives, 7 Co-operative Commonwealth Federationists, 1 Labor and 1 Independent, a line-up which gives Conservatives the official Opposition under Dr. F. P. Patterson, Provincial Conservative leader.

By parties, the Nineteenth Legislature will be made up of the following representatives:

HE WAS AFRAID TO CROSS A STREET

Lost His Nerve After 12 Months' Agony.

Suffering from acute rheumatism in both his knees—treated in hospital twice without result—so unwell that he was afraid to cross a street—how readily every rheumatic sufferer will sympathize with this man. Read what he says:

"For twelve months, I suffered pain and misery with acute rheumatism in both my knees. Twice, I was treated in hospital—but it was no use. I could not walk up or downstairs. I was afraid to cross the street, for I had lost all confidence in myself. Fourteen days ago, I started taking Kruschen Salts, and already I am a new man. I can walk with a smart step, go up and downstairs with ease, and cross the street with complete confidence. My rheumatism is getting better every day."

In a good many cases, rheumatism cannot resist the action of Kruschen Salts, which dissolve the painful crystals of uric acid—often the cause of those aches and pains—and assist the kidneys to eliminate this poison through the natural channels. (Adv.)

OPERA RECITAL MUCH ENJOYED

Generous Programme Presented by Victoria School of Music at Empire

A large audience greeted the Victoria School of Music and Opera last evening at the Empire Theatre, under the direction of Prof. J. B. Hoffman and assisted by the Beethoven Choral Club and an augmented orchestra.

From first to last it was a most ambitious programme, representing much hard work for the individual student both in and out of the studio and strenuous rehearsal for this special occasion.

SCENES FROM OPERA

In addition to other material, selections from nine or ten operas were embraced in the recital, the climax of vocal and visual color being reached in the first half of the programme with the two scenes from Verdi's "Il Trovatore," and, in the second part, with the entire second act from Offenbach's "Tales of Hoffman."

Both of these were presented in traditional costume, with principals and chorus making up an ensemble of about twenty-five when all were on the stage together. These, as well as the majority of the solo numbers during the evening, were accompanied by the orchestra.

THE PROGRAMME

The opening number was orchestral, Inauguration March from the opera "Boabdil," by Moszkowski, which was followed by the Beethoven Choral Club's singing of Mendelssohn's "Vale of Rest," which showed interest and keenness on the part of the choir.

The operatic selections that followed included the duet, "Will You Remember, Sweetheart?" from Romberg's "Maytime," sung by Miss Winnifred Applegate and H. F. Williams, with the Beethoven Choral Club; "Vol Che Sapete" from Mozart's "Marriage of Figaro," sung by Master Raymond S. Crabbe, a boy treble, the youngest of the singers; "Jewel Song" from Gounod's "Faust," sung by Miss Edna Burgess; "Voce di Donna" from Pochiell's "La Gioconda," sung by Miss Elizabeth Welch; and "Je Dis Que Rien."

from Bizet's "Carmen," sung by Mrs. W. B. Colvin.

The two scenes already mentioned from "Il Trovatore" were the Anvil Chorus and Canzone, where Mrs. R. H. Tait took the part of Azucena, supported by the Beethoven Choral Club, and the duet, from the fourth act, between Leonora and Count di Luna, Miss Winnifred Applegate carrying the former part and Thomas Crabbe the latter. These were both quite impressive and dramatic excerpts. Miss Edna Burgess took the important part of Olympia, the doll, in the scene from "Tales of Hoffman," and other principals were Herman F. Williams as the Poet, Hoffman; Miss Betty Couch as his friend, Nicolas; Wilfred Demers as Coppellius; Thomas Crabbe as Dr. Spalanzani; and Clayton Peters as the butler. The Misses W. Applegate and E. Welch sang the familiar Barcarolle.

YOUNGER TALENT

Three youthful musicians on the programme were Irene Hurdie, a composed and note-perfect little pianist, who played the Barcarolle from Auber's "Masaniello," and Master Raymond Le Huquet and his sister Jacqueline, who played with accustomed confidence the "Danse Espagnol" by Russell Miller, arranged for violin and piano.

Other numbers on the generous programme were: "Hills of Home," sung by Larry Lee; "Neapolitan Nights," sung by Mario Forer; Sir Henry Bishop's "Lo Hear the Gentle Lark," with flute obbligato by Mr. Jones, and with Mrs. C. C. ## Truck Demolished In Morning Crash

A light delivery truck driven by Harold R. Young, 803 Cook Street, was practically demolished when it struck the rear end of a street car on the intersection of Esquimalt Road and Maitland Street at 12:10 o'clock this morning. Young's right thumb was almost torn off. He also received severe bruises, and was attended at the Jubilee Hospital by Dr. A. D. Bechtel.

Local Convention to Draft Trades Union Bill for Submission

Representatives of Labor to Gather Here at Month's End—Negotiations in Projectionists' Strike Are Reported on by Delegate

In a two-hour meeting held last evening, members of the Victoria Trades and Labor Council considered plans for the trade union convention here on October 30-31; heard a brief address by Colin Cameron, M.P.P.-elect for Comox; unanimously endorsed a resolution submitted by him, urging a boycott of Japanese, Italian and German goods; heard a report on the present strike of motion picture projectionists by S. Evans, and referred several matters of importance to labor, to the legislative and executive committees of the Council.

Delegates from all parts of British Columbia will attend the convention for the purpose of drafting a trade union bill for submission to the Provincial Legislature, which will then be sitting. "This is the biggest thing we have tried to put on the books of the province for the past thirty years," commented Victor R. Midgletter asking for its consideration by the local Trades and Labor Council, was submitted to the legislative committee.

"There are three famous players houses affected locally by the strike of the motion picture projectionists," declared S. Evans, in making a report on the matter. He declared he had been in telephone conversation with the president of the Victoria union, at present in Vancouver, who had then hoped for an early settlement.

Mr. Evans hoped, he said, for settlement "by morning."

TRADE BOYCOTT

Delegates endorsed unanimously a resolution set before them by Colin Cameron, M.P.P.-elect from Comox, urging economic sanctions on Japan, Germany and Italy.

The resolution reads that "Japanese Imperialists have burst into China, bringing with them death and destruction to our brother Chinese, and they hope by invasion, murder and violence to add China to their list of colonies." It therefore urges:

1. An appeal to Premier King and President Roosevelt to invoke the Nine-Power Pact and the Kellogg Peace Pact.

2. That economic sanctions be placed on Japan, Italy and Germany by placing all their merchandise on the "We-don't-patronize list."

3. That "we appeal to and pledge our support to Canadian and American maritime workers refusing to handle munitions and cargo bound for Japan, until all military forces are withdrawn from China."

WINCH SUBMITS BILL

In that connection a draft bill submitted by Harold E. Winch, M.P.P.-elect, similar to a trades union bill placed before the Legislature last year, together with a against retention of the commission.

WASTE OF FUNDS

"Scandalous waste of public money has been brought about by setting up the commission abortively, and in now continuing that body when no action is to be taken on a health insurance scheme. I suggest that we make the strongest possible protest to a continuation of the expenditure of funds which have brought no result," Mr. Harvey stated.

E. W. Maynard moved and F. G. Mulliner seconded a resolution bringing the protest to the attention of Conservative members in the new Legislature, with the request that they take whatever action was possible to bring the matter to the attention of the House. The resolution carried unanimously.

GREATER PUBLICITY

The executive also went on record as desiring greater publicity for the doings of the British Columbia Conservative Association, to let people of the province know steps taken in the reorganization of the party.

A characteristically cheerful letter of thanks was received from Hon. Dr. S. F. Tolmie, M.P., who replied to condolence on indisposition by stating: "I am plump tired of it now," a sally received with applause.

SEES DANGER IN PROPOSAL

Canon Hinchliffe continued, and a motion passed to continue a drive for promulgation of an Act by spreading information about the bill and in other ways. Previous to the convention 62.2 per cent of the teachers had voted in favor of this course, 13.5 per cent against it, 7.8 per cent remained unrecorded, and 5 per cent had spoiled their ballots.

"The central purpose of this proposed bill is to compel all teachers to join a new society if they would remain in actual service as teachers in the province," the speaker continued.

WOULD BE SUPREME

If the council of the proposed society of teachers were given the powers asked for, those powers would be superior to those of the elected representatives of the people, Canon Hinchliffe continued. Under the bill the society could tell teachers what to do, upon pain of penalties up to and including complete forfeiture of their right to teach in the province at all. While no such intent might be held, every school in the province could be closed and kept shut until any and every demand of the Teachers' Council on salaries or otherwise had been satisfied. These were wide powers.

Under Section 19 of the proposed bill penalties were provided, and under Section 22 the society would be given power to impose a levy on every teacher member, in addition to annual fees, in any amount, and for whatever purpose decided upon under by-laws to be drafted and enforced by the society itself, he continued.

Such levies would become a "debt" recoverable in the courts if necessary, with powers to the council to strike a teacher completely off the rolls if refusing to subscribe to any of the demands of the group in control.

IN CONTROL

He did not, Canon Hinchliffe added, suggest it, but such powers of levy could be used for campaign purposes at will. The Department of Education could continue to pay the cost of teacher training, issue certificates and help to build schools, but the new society could erase the name of any teacher from the rolls and cancel the Province's own certificate.

"I don't say for one minute that the teachers would do these things, but under the proposed law, which has been quite seriously discussed by a large body of teachers, they could. There is just one thing to do, and that is to hold fast to control of our schools by the elected representatives of the people."

"If you give way, we will no longer have public schools, but schools dominated by a group of teachers."

TO SELECT EXECUTIVE

Conservatives of City Will Hold Annual Meeting This Evening

Hon. Grote Stirling, M.P., will be the featured speaker before the annual meeting of the Victoria Conservative Association, commencing at 8 o'clock this evening at the Conservative headquarters, Campbell Building. R. D. Harvey will preside, with election of officers and choice of delegates to the Provincial organization the principal business of the meeting.

In official nominations filed on Saturday last acclamations were suggested for all offices, with the exception of that of second vice-president, for which Brigadier J. Sutherland Brown and Mrs. E. C. Taylor were nominated.

RENOMINATED

R. D. Harvey, president, is being nominated for another term in that capacity. Also renominated were W. H. M. Haldane as first vice-president; F. G. Mulliner as treasurer, and F. A. Willis as secretary.

From the floor of the meeting, nominations are to be received for two members on the British Columbia Conservative Association's executive, and four delegates to the annual Provincial meeting, to be held at New Westminster on October 30.

GIVES DETAILS OF TELESCOPES

Dr. J. S. Plaskett Describes Manufacture of 200-Inch Instrument for Palomar

To the layman, whose astronomical knowledge is confined to the Milky Way, the Pole star and possibly the location of the Great Bear, the construction of a 200-inch telescope would mean little, but to the scientist it represents one of the greatest achievements of the modern age.

Dr. J. S. Plaskett, O.B.E., former director of the Dominion Astrophysical Observatory here, in an address to members of the Victoria Centre of the Royal Astronomical Society of Canada, at the Y.W.C.A. last night, told of the progress being made in the manufacture of the 200-inch telescope to be located at Mount Palomar, California. Although its gigantic size would indicate it would eclipse the work of all others, it was explained by Dr. Plaskett the telescope would supplement the work now being carried on by other observatories on the North American Continent.

DESCRIBES MANUFACTURE

After describing the process of making the huge mirror, Dr. Plaskett outlined details of the construction of the telescope, its housing and the massive machinery required to mount the instrument when complete. Although the movable whole of the telescope weighed many tons, a motor of less than a half horsepower would be needed to change its position for observations. He said many radical changes had been made in the construction of the telescope support and the 200-inch mirror which is being made of pyrex glass, fused quartz having been found unsatisfactory because of inability to control expansion and contraction.

SHOWS SLIDES

Dr. Plaskett showed a number of lantern slides of the completed parts of the Palomar telescope and some of the optical work being done in specially constructed buildings that, he said, had to be entirely free from dust. He also described the progress of making the new telescope to be

Plan Dinner Meeting

Those intending to be present should communicate with Capt. Norman Foster, secretary, at Empire 7191.

Tommy had been given the job of sweeping the snow from a neighbor's front door. After he had completed the task the neighbor came to the door and pressed a coin into his hand.

Tommy looked at it but remained silent.

"Now, Tommy," said the neighbor, "what should a little boy say when he has been given a penny for sweeping the snow away?"

"Daddy said I mustn't use that kind of language," was the reply.

ONTARIO'S VERDICT

Premier Hepburn's victory in yesterday's election in Ontario does not differ greatly from that he achieved in the preceding contest. He is returned to power by a very large majority. It is an endorsement of his policies, and, incidentally, of himself, for Conservatives made his character an issue of the campaign. Ontario's electors have approved the cancellation of contractual obligations in the matter of hydro-electric. They have sustained the stand of the Government in opposition to the American Committee for Industrial Organization gaining a foothold in the Province. They have given their sanction to the Hepburn policies affecting the Civil Service and to his personal control of the administration of liquor.

The Federal Liberals, obviously from the result, did not consider they had any differences with those of the Provincial stripe and they voted for Mr. Hepburn despite his condemnation of Mr. Mackenzie King's Liberalism. The issue lay between the two main political parties and the Conservatives were a poor second. The minor parties do not appear to have made any gains, and, indeed, are becoming less of a factor in the country's political life. Ontario, so long known as soundly Conservative in its leanings, has rejected that allegiance in recent years. It now seems to be as solidly Liberal as it was in the days of Mowat and Blake.

UNNECESSARY STREET NOISES

There is sound reason in more meanings than one for the volume of complaint that has arisen against unnecessary street noises. It is a matter in which the City Council should exercise jurisdiction by an all-embracing by-law that will give the police authority to act against those who disturb the peace in a wanton way. There is no need whatever for the use of cutouts in the city streets, no occasion for speedy acceleration of motor cars when in low after stopping at street intersections; there should be an authority that would put an end to the use of defective and grinding brakes. Moreover, motor horns are used too much and too often, and many of them are dissonant. These are what in the aggregate and singly may be characterized as unnecessary noises.

It is a matter of common knowledge medically that the increase in the pace of life and its accompaniment of loudness in the actions of mankind have had their effect in causing jangled nerves in so many. In many places, in Eastern Canada, in the United States and in Great Britain, steps have been taken to lessen the noise in cities by making unnecessary sounds violations of traffic laws, by improvement of the roadways within municipal limits and by a general campaign of education to insure that road users will observe the elements of decency as they go about their business. Education in this particular is only an accessory to the law, for it is the law's operation that is the only effective deterrent. It is official vigilance that is the essential in the premises, the infliction of fines which will bring motorists to a realization that when they go upon their lawful occasions they will not be permitted to be a menace to the peace of the community.

The City Council will operate in line with the wishes of a great majority of the community if it will pass a by-law to cover all unnecessary street noises, including those that are the aftermath of wedding parties.

DEEPLY-ROOTED CUSTOM

Finger rings have had an important place as articles of personal adornment from the earliest known times. They have been changed frequently and radically in design and style, but through the centuries the basic band of metal placed about a finger and even the thumb has always been a popular ornament. Rings are mentioned in the Book of Genesis, and the sacred records tell of Pharaoh's ring. Herodotus records that all Babylonians were accustomed to the wearing of metal finger decorations. In these early times their value as an ornament was secondary to their use as signet rings, a use that quickly found wider appeal as it became known in Europe. In Greece, at the time of Solon, signet rings were worn, and soon after it became fashionable to wear rings engraved and studded with precious stones. The Lacedaemonians always wore rings of iron, and among the German tribes, in the time of Tacitus, it was the custom to wear an iron ring until an enemy had been slain in war. The Roman rings, at first, were of iron and strictly for signet use, but the habit of increasing luxury amongst the Romans corrupted this primitive fashion.

Some rings are famous in history and have a romance attached to them that gives them an extraordinary interest. There is the ring which is inset in the tomb of the Earl of Essex in Westminster Abbey which was given to the nobleman by Queen Elizabeth with the injunction that, should he ever find himself in trouble the Queen would exercise her royal prerogative in his behalf, if the token was sent to her. The Earl did fall upon evil times and the ring was returned to Her Majesty, but never reached her hands, it being kept therefor by the Countess of Nottingham.

Rings have always played an important part in Oriental legends. There was the ring of Solomon which was reputed to have possessed the power of sealing up refractory "Genii" in jars and causing them to perform feats and miracles. Legend has it that Solomon lost his wisdom when he lost the possession of a marvelous ring which was thrown into the Jordan by one of his wives. For a long time he was rendered foolish and reckless, but his wisdom was restored when the ring, found inside a fish, was restored to him.

There probably is no other form of adornment that has as great and widespread sentimental value as a ring. Some are valued for their beauty, some for their worth in the market places, but most for the memories they hold. It matters little, when sentiment is deeply rooted, what the appearance or the money value of a ring may be; it is cherished despite any lack of weight or absence of costly gems. The engagement ring may be a gorgeous thing; it is prized for the romance of its history. The wedding ring is relatively plain and solid; it is prized for the faithfulness, care, devotion and affection bestowed through the years by its giver. The rings that mark scholastic classes, team connections and lodge affiliations all are cherished for their associations. Those fashioned in an unusual design, under unusual circumstances or bearing gems of varying dollar value, all have fond memories attached that are dear to their owners. Few are the rings that are mere ornaments; most are a source of inspiration, each in its individual symbolism.

ORIENTAL RUTHLESSNESS

Mrs. Pearl S. Buck, the authoress of "The Good Earth," has written an article in "Asia" attempting to explain the degree of ruthlessness that characterizes the undeclared Sino-Japanese War. She points to it as being due to the lack of humanitarian development in the stage reached by civilization in the Orient. There, human life, in the individual sense, is regarded as worthless. The emphasis has been placed on art and philosophy, and "these tend to detach a person from life, so that where the highest development in art and philosophy is found there is found also the greatest callousness towards human beings." She notes a lack of fair play in war, and, in distress, and says that the lives of non-combatants and prisoners are "of no more value than any other, which is to say they have no value at all."

She says both Chinese and Japanese are practicing war "logically and therefore with utter ruthlessness." Western opinion is prone to blame the Japanese for it all, but the fault lies on both sides, for both are using any methods that they believe will contribute to victory. Mrs. Buck says: "To have the means of death in one's hands with no fear of death in one's heart is the ultimate of terror not only for those engaged in such warfare but for everybody else." That is why the present combat in the Orient, with its ruthlessness as expressed by both Chinese and Japanese, is regarded with such horror by those who have a more humanitarian philosophy.

With the exception, perhaps, of Premier Abernethy and his fellow champions of the Social Credit creed, the Communists and the Socialists, everyone is in favor of the liberty of the Press in British lands. It is the perennial corrective of the abuses that spring up in connection with any government or society where democracy maintains. It is now, as in the days of Richard Brinsley Sheridan, when he said: "Give me but the liberty of the Press and I will give him a corrupt and servile House of Commons. I will give him the full swing of the patronage of office. I will give him the whole host of ministerial influence. I will give him all the power that place can confer upon him, to purchase up submission and overawe resistance; and yet, armed with the liberty of the Press, I will go forth to meet him undismayed. I will attack the mighty fabric of that mightier engine, I will shake down from its height corruption and bury it beneath the ruins of the abuses it was meant to shelter."

"Man," says Henri Bergson, "is the only animal whose actions are uncertain, who hesitates, gropes about and lays plans in the hope of success and the fear of failure." He should take a lesson from the ants, or the bees, or even the earwigs.

Diligence is the mother of good luck, and God gives all things to industry. Then plough deep while slugs sleep, and you shall have corn to sell and to keep.—Benjamin Franklin.

Note and Comment

By Sandham Graves

Gentlemen: You write that you have been successful in arranging special rates of automobile insurance, and that many of the "leading businessmen of British Columbia" have already availed themselves of the opportunity of obtaining low rates with a good company; that your policies cover public liability up to $10,000, property damage to $1,000, and collisions costing more than $25 per collision; you state finally that the rates on my car will be given to me by your representative when he calls. Flattered as I am by that touch of leading businessmen; aware as I am of the advantage of public liability insurance, property damage insurance, and protection against collisions costing more than $25 per collision; still I must ask that your representative refrain from calling. Privately, gentlemen, I have no car. Should, however, you have anything for a pedestrian I would always be happy to receive your representative. Note: We have tea at 4 o'clock, and the address is Victoria, not Vancouver as your letter states.

The mystery of what has happened to Canada's new silver coinage, with its canoes and caribou heads, etc., was cleared up in part yesterday, when one Victoria bank offered to take orders for an entire set of the coins, valued at $3. The Mint, it seems, is going to retail them. My advice to everyone is to purchase a set of the coins, on the ground that one should always encourage trade and enterprise; specially from such a long-established institution as the Mint. Who knows, perhaps the coins may actually be placed in circulation some day. At all events, they can never be less than their face value of $3; unless political nostrums delivered from public rostrums (I said it first!) succeed in replacing coinage, too, with a scratch of the pen. (My pen scratches so badly that I should be wealthy in no time.) To put the case on its plainest basis, however, if the public want to see what the new silver coins of Canada are like, they had better order a set from the Mint. It seems the only way. British Columbia has produced upwards of 11,000,000 ounces of silver in a single year, and its use in coinage, where practicable, would be appreciated by those who are interested in silver-lead mines in Canada. Then, who can tell; if we encourage the Mint in this particular, it may yet branch out generally into the antique business, with collectors' pieces all along the way.

Bears and wolves have been getting into the news in British Columbia lately. Up in the lode gold country a cook was bothered by nightly thefts from his storehouse, with a considerable amount of wanton destruction into the bargain. One night last week he heard maudlin wailing in the storehouse again and rushed there in his bare feet and blinking. He struck a match and, blinking in the sudden glare, he found himself face to face with a three hundred pound bear. The cook circled strategically, secured his rifle, and added bear steak to the camp's dinner next day. Well, son reported another incident at Waneta in the border area, where a bear strolled by the railway platform and spent some time in a close examination of employment circulars on the outside of the Post Office. The postmistress was busy with household chores inside the house, but her child was playing outside around the angle of the building. The bear, however, contented itself with looking over the public notices, and then resumed a leisurely stroll through the town. Dogs and men routed the animal, but is that a way to treat a distinguished visitor? A Prince George citizen drove around a bend in the road three miles from Summit Lake, and saw twenty timber wolves coming towards him along the road. He scrambled to get his rifle and ammunition on the rear seat of the car, while the hairs stood out on the neck of his growling dog. The wolves showed no fear of the car, but that was their undoing. The driver shot four of the animals, before the pack made up its mind to retreat. His diary for the trip showed: Gasoline $1, bounty on wolves $40; credit balance $39, by the stroke of a rifle, as it were.

The Provincial Police overhauled motor vehicles at Kelowna in a sudden safety drive the other day, with results that interested the owners of these vehicles. The police tested out 500 cars on the public highway, finding 121 of them had defective lights, twenty-six had defective brakes, and forty-six had miscellaneous defects which neither the drivers nor the police could locate in a hurry. In other words, almost 200 of the 500 cars would have placed their owners in an embarrassing position in any civil action arising out of accident on the highway. Let it not be suggested, however, that this result was peculiar to Kelowna, for Provincial records show the test could have been repeated at any point in British Columbia with approximately the same results: Er—have you a car?

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

(From The Daily Colonist of October 7, 1887)

Splendid Fruit—Some splendid samples of fruit from Alberta are on view at Henry Saunders' store on Johnson Street. The fruit was grown by G. D. Clarke, Alberta, and it is in every respect equal to any ever grown in California. Among the samples are a fine citron, mammoth tomatoes, apples of a weight of one and one-quarter pounds each, luscious Bartlett pears and later onions. Evidently the soil and climate of the Alberta Valley is particularly adapted for fruit culture, and now that a regular steamer service is established, no doubt the settlers there will go in for fruit growing, as a ready market can be found for it here.

Perry Creek Mining—On Saturday last, ninety packages, containing a Cornish pump and a general host for the Perry Creek Mining Company, were forwarded. The C.P.R. forwarded the consignment by one of their last tea trains, and the probability is that the plant, which weighs 8,500 pounds, is now being sent south from Golden to Perry Creek.

Tomorrow's Races—The following entries for the quarter-mile horse race have been made: Akenside's Steady Dan, Frank Porter's Why Not and Johnson's Bedouin. The mile and repeat. Bussies: Martin's Hoodlum, McQuinn's Prince and Billy Hall's Island Bell.

JUNIOR JUDGES ARE SELECTED

Eight British Columbia Boys To Represent Province At Toronto

Hon. K. C. MacDonald announced yesterday the selection from British Columbia elimination contests of eight boys who will take part in junior judging contests at the Royal Winter Fair, Toronto, on or about November 17. The following boys qualified as junior judges and will be sent by the Province to the fair:

Dairying: Bruce Richardson and Don Richardson, both of Chilliwack; livestock: R. Lawrence, Hestley Creek, and W. Wilson, Vinsulla; swine: A. Frolek and A. Blackwell, both of Kamloops; potatoes: Roy Green and Robert Hazlett, both of Abbotsford.

These boys won in the British Columbia junior judging finals held at Interior fairs, and will represent some 1,200 boys and girls enrolled in junior livestock and other clubs about the Province. The Department of Agriculture, it was said, is highly pleased by the showing made in the British Columbia tests, and confident of adequate representation at Toronto.

Fish Story De Luxe

Not long ago three city business men journeyed to Cowichan Bay with the intention of hooking a few record-breaking salmon. After a hard day's fishing they discontinued rowing to shore empty handed. Suddenly one of the men emitted a joyful shout. The other two ran to a grassy bank where the first fisherman was bending over three large and quite fresh salmon. After a short conference they loaded the fish into their automobile and sped away without questioning how the fish got ashore. In the city the fish were cooked and served under the direction of a friend who operates a restaurant. He was informed how they came by the salmon. Next day he enjoyed considerable fun at their expense by telephoning the fishermen with the startling news that the police had questioned him regarding the identity of three fishermen who purloined fish at Cowichan Bay.

Cartoonist Earl writes from Inverness Street about a Saanich resident who he says is known as "Senator Scatterbray."

Back in 1918 Babe Ruth and Tillie Walker were tied for home run honors in the American League with eleven each. Years later when the Babe was belting them over the fences and into the far distant bleachers he smacked seventeen for the circuit in one month. I understand that the wrestling game will return to Victoria fans next week and that a fine selection of matmen, most of them new, will be on the card.

Eddie Wenstob, who meets Sonny Buxton in a main event in Vancouver shortly, fought Tommy Farr less than two years ago and gained a draw. When a man plays golf and doesn't swear for nineteen holes he deserves a medal. He's either playing perfect golf or being henpecked.—J.D.

Who Made the Lure?

Ten years ago the buck-tailed fly appeared on the market. Its name describes it fairly, for it is made of the hair from a buck's tail, tied with red and blue, about a body of silver. Now fishermen recalling its first appearance as at a loss to say who first thought of the lure which has proven the downfall of so many coho salmon in these waters. . . . Probably some readers of this column may be able to help. . . . A rather novel counterfeit coin made its appearance recently, and is being kept as a pocket piece by the man who found it. On one side it bears the head of King George V. On the other it reads "One Cent. U.S.A." . . . Its owner declares it to be the first prophetic coin he has seen. . . . Apologies to those keen soldiers and fine fishermen, Sergeant Bob White and Sergeant Jack Morgan, who hooked a sixty-three and one-half pound salmon not long ago near here. Their photograph appeared in The New York Times. They were described as "militiamen." We went one better and said they were "United States militiamen." At that, no doubt, the United States Army would be more than pleased to number them amongst the armed forces of the Republic. . . . "Nude Bathing Rampant in Victoria," says a headline in a Vancouver daily. It's the first time we knew that one swallow made a Summer.—B.G.

It's a Crazy World

Worth Cheney reports that a resident of New York recently returned from England, where he attended a lecture in which a well-known woman doctor predicted that within the next 100 years everybody would be insane. She contended that insanity had increased 30 per cent in the past ten years, and that if it continues in the same tempo, she believes that by 2039 the whole world will be stark mad. The prediction might frighten some folk, but it doesn't worry the New Yorker. He observes: "If everyone is insane the world will be a better place to live in. The trouble today is that the average man thinks he is the only one who is sane. But with everyone crazy, there won't be anybody normal. In other words, everybody will be normal, for there won't be any sane people around to tell how insane everybody else is. We guess in a case like that the sane person would be the crazy one.—M.R.

Awkward Coins

"We have a nice range of three-penny pieces today. Or would you like to see our new season's shillings, in two attractive designs?" The English coinage system has always been a bugbear to visitors from other countries, but one wonders what the feelings of a foreigner in Britain would be if all the nineteen new coins minted to commemorate the Coronation were to be put into circulation. Three different kinds of three-penny pieces, duplicate shillings, a silver penny about as big as a split pea, twopenny and four-penny pieces, a cartwheel five-shilling piece. . . . There are enough different shapes and sizes to bring grey hairs to the head of even a native son accustomed to the system. Holes in the trouser pockets are likely to be more plentiful, too, if the new twelve-sided bronze three-penny piece goes into general use.—R.M.

Football Hero

Victoria has provided another star athlete for American sport—a big, blond, bruising lad—Paul Rowe by name. "Pile-Driving" Paul, as he is better known around the campus of the University of Oregon, has already caught the eyes of football experts up and down the Coast, through his brilliant playing at fullback for the Web-foot eleven. One of the mainstays in the backfield of the Fifth Regiment English Rugby squad for several seasons, Rowe has transferred his ability to the American code. Known here as a sprinter of considerable merit and a flashy broken field runner, Paul has achieved success across the border, from his line-smashing, blocking and defensive tactics. The former Victoria boy, in his position of fullback, is the key man in the Oregon offensive.—W.I.P.

FEDERATED CHARITIES

Sir—In view of recent developments in the field of financial campaigns for social service work in this city, the Salvation Army feels that the circumstances call for a brief statement with regard to its attitude towards federated charities. It has been suggested by some that the Salvation Army is opposed to the federated method of financing social service groups. To this we wish to give an unqualified denial. There have been in certain centres in Canada circumstances that have, in our judgment, justified our participating in such a scheme. In other cases we have thought it advisable to remain outside the federated bodies. Local conditions have, therefore, been the deciding factor in the Army's relationship to federated charities.

We are well aware of some of the advantages of a united appeal, both as it affects the unit organizations of a federation and the general public, and in all centres, whether we have or have not membership in Federated Charities, we have always sought to maintain a spirit of good will and co-operation. At the present time, the Salvation Army is not a member of the recently formed Victoria Federation, but we wish it to be understood that we are willing at any time to discuss with the executives of the federation the question of future relationships.

We have been prompted to make this statement through the press in the interests of our work and in fairness to our many friends who have so splendidly supported the Salvation Army in this city, and also to acquaint the public with the true attitude of our organization towards the principle of Federated Charities. R. SHAW, Major, Financial Organizer, The Salvation Army, P.O. Box 781, Victoria, B.C., October 5, 1937.

ECONOMICS WITHOUT PREJUDICE

Sir—Production equals costs, costs equals real income, therefore real income equals costs, equals production. Hence, it may be seen, that any amount given as what Social Credit terms "national dividend" is not derived from the production of any year considered. If such "national dividend" were expressed as dollars, and if it was distributed after the fact of production equals cost, equals income, there would be excess dollars available to buy any stated quantity of production, equals cost. Such excess dollars would cause the price of goods and services to rise, but, real wages would not rise. Further, raising prices of consumer goods

THE STRAINED FOODS BABIES THRIVE ON

Babies thrive better on Heinz Strained Foods because they like them. Babies like them because they have a garden-fresh flavour all year round—never varying in quality, taste or texture—and because they "agree" with little tummies. Mothers like Heinz Strained Foods because they save hours of work every day.

The vegetables are cooked in their own juices—no additions—not even seasoning—all food. Cooking in the absence of air keeps in the vitamins and minerals baby needs. 11 kinds—vegetables, soup, cereal and fruits.

"You don't mean to tell me this is a 'bought' soup!" exclaims the head of the house. And then you tell him the secret. "It's a Heinz Soup," you say, "the home-made kind, with the goodness cooked in."

And there really is a world of difference. Heinz Soups are made with selected meats, fine, flavoursome vegetables and special Oriental spices. In the cream soups there is real cream—thicker than whipping cream. Heinz Soups are completed in one cooking—you add nothing, do no work; just heat and serve. Be sure to get in a supply this week-end. Everybody likes them because each kind offers the fresh individual flavour of its ingredients.

JUNIORS PLAN BUSY SEASON

Three Younger Branches of Musical Arts Have Ambitious Programmes

With their opening meetings planned for next Saturday afternoon and evening, October 9, and Friday evening, October 22, the three junior branches of the Victoria Musical Art Society begin a season which is to be marked by a special campaign to develop active interest among younger and very young musicians.

According to its policy, which has proved most successful in the past seven years, the parent society divides its youthful members into three separate groups, each governed by its own officers, and each advised by a member from the senior Victoria Musical Art executive. Students up to twenty-five years, inclusive, meet once a month to hear and discuss music suitable to their age and appreciation, and also have the privilege of attending all the concerts of the parent society.

BEGIN SATURDAY

The juveniles, children up to thirteen years of age, inclusive, will hold their first meeting next Saturday afternoon in the Victoria Truth Centre. Miss Helen Ockenden is the adviser on the parent society, and the young officers are Rita Nivard, president, and Myrtle Shaw, secretary.

The intermediates will begin their season, with Mrs. T. W. A. Gray and Mrs. R. D. McCaw from the senior society as their advisers. This season the life, character and works of such composers as Bach, Mozart, Schubert, Mendelssohn, Beethoven and Chopin will be presented. Members of this branch are from the ages of fourteen to seventeen, inclusive, and have as their president Margaret Scouler, with Hilda Newton as secretary.

CONCERT LECTURES

The junior group, with Mrs. G. A. Cameron as senior adviser, announces a series of discussions on various musical forms with illustrations. These concert lectures will take place during the Winter at the homes kindly loaned by members of the Musical Art Society, and will commence at 8:30 p.m. The programmes follow: October 22, at the home of Mrs. G. A. Cameron, 2021 Runnymede, folk music, with a talk by Mrs. Allan Peebles; November 19, the "Sonata," at the home of Mrs. J. O. Cameron, Moss Street, with a talk by Miss Gwendolyn Harper; December 11, a combined concert by the three junior groups, in the Victoria Truth Centre.

Further announcement will be made regarding the other topics included for lecture and musical entertainment. The subjects will be as follows: "Bach and His Music," "Opera and Oratorio" and the "Romantic Composers." Miss Dorothy McKicking is the president and Miss Doris Briggs the secretary of this group.

TUBERCULOSIS CLINIC ACTIVE

Modern Methods of Diagnosis and Treatment Give Hope to Afflicted

The following Empire Health Week article on the control of tuberculosis was contributed by Dr. F. Kincaid, medical director, Victoria Unit, Provincial Tuberculosis Department:

In former years tuberculosis was considered a hopeless community problem and in individual cases the attitude was usually one of despair. But newer knowledge and modern methods of diagnosis and treatment have completely altered the picture. Diagnosis can be made now in the earlier and curable stages and, in the larger majority of cases, the disease can be arrested in a comparatively short time.

In view of these changes, the Provincial Government has organized a campaign against this disease. It has established a tuberculosis division of the board of health, with a provincial medical director in charge, assisted by a central tuberculosis council. The division has taken over control of practically all tuberculosis beds in the Province, including the Transvaal Sanatorium and departments at the Vancouver General Hospital and at both the Jubilee and St. Joseph's Hospitals in Victoria. There are three main units, viz.: Vancouver, Transvaal and Victoria.

DIAGNOSTIC CLINIC
The Victoria Unit has as its centre the Spencer Clinic at the Jubilee Hospital. Here a diagnostic clinic is operated daily at which anyone can have a thorough examination, free of charge, at the request of a practising physician or health officer, who will afterwards prepare a report. This service is available to everyone and should be made full use of without hesitation, as it is in this way that cases are detected early and that spread of the disease is prevented.

Attached to the clinic there are forty beds in the pavilion at the Jubilee Hospital and twenty beds in Vernon Villa, St. Joseph's Hospital. Modern surgical and other forms of treatment are carried out daily in the pavilion, for in-patients and also for out-patients. The Villa is being used for the more convalescent cases and, in connection with this, the Victoria Kiwanis Club Association for Rehabilitation of the Tuberculous is fitting up special premises for educational and vocational training, with the object of re-establishing patients, when they become well enough, as self-supporting members of the community.

RECEIVES BIG BULB SHIPMENT

Consignment Will Double Acreage of Wooldridge Farm, Ltd., Koksilah

A thirty-five-ton shipment of bulbs, probably a record for this Island, was received here yesterday from Holland, consigned for the most part to the Wooldridge Bulb Farm, Ltd., near the Dominion Illustration Farm, Koksilah.

The million or more bulbs were being cleared by John Noble, local inspector, who was assisted by H. F. Auld, Dominion plant inspector, of Vancouver.

In the shipment are twenty-seven and one-half tons of daffodils, of which twenty-five tons are the King Alfred variety; 50,000 tulips, 5,000 hyacinths, and smaller lots of other Spring bulbs. A few thousand of them have been ordered by local growers.

The shipment will double the amount of land in bulbs at Wooldridge Farm at this time, bringing it to twenty-five acres, according to Ray Wooldridge, manager. In addition, he expects two tons of iris planting stock in about a week.

Yesterday's shipment was discharged at the Island Tug & Barge Company's dock.

Would Do Much to Check
Spread of Disease

One of our medical health officers recently, in discussing the need for adequate sterilization of household dishes and cutlery, with a view of preventing the spread of infectious diseases, made the suggestion that a household unit should be devised by some enterprising plumber to be a vision of health, and put on the market at a reasonable cost, providing for steam sterilization of all dishes and cutlery, subsequently to the usual "wash up" in hot soap and water.

The process is by no means beyond practical conception and corresponds to the same practice at present in use in our more up-to-date restaurants.

CONSTIPATION MAY LEAD TO COLDS

Every doctor will tell you the first thing to do to avoid suffering from colds—is to be sure you are not constipated. Constipation clogs up the system. It weakens resistance, and infections take hold.

End common constipation by eating Kellogg's ALL-BRAN regularly. This cereal supplies the "built-in" laxative for normal, natural action. It also gives vitamin B to tone up the intestines—and iron for the blood.

In the body, Kellogg's ALL-BRAN absorbs twice its weight in water. It forms a soft mass, which gently exercises and sponges out the intestines.

Eat two tablespoonfuls a day, either as a cereal with milk or fruits or in cooked dishes. Chronic cases with each meal. Will help you stay regular without having to take pills and drugs—that often make conditions worse.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is sold at all grocers. Made and guaranteed by Kellogg in London.

SAYS LIBERTIES NOW AT STAKE

H. W. Davey Urges Liberals To Resist Encroachment On Constitutional Rights

Declaring that under various acts, citizens were being deprived of recourse to the courts, H. W. Davey, addressing Ward Five Liberal Association last night, urged that any encroachment on constitutional rights, from whatever source it might come, should be strenuously resisted.

The speaker stated it had come to be believed that constitutional liberties were so firmly established that there was no danger of their being overthrown, but events within the last two years had shown that confidence to be misplaced. He said the dictatorship example of Germany, Italy, Japan and Russia were being emulated by Premier Aberhart in Alberta. To all thinking people, he declared, the methods of those countries bore their own condemnation.

SAYS DANGER INCREASES
The most insidious form of danger in Canada came from within, Mr. Davey asserted. There was a tendency on the part of the executive to usurp the functions of the legislature and judiciary. Two hundred years ago such a thing would have aroused the bitterest opposition of every liberal-thinking person. Today the danger was increasing, he continued, and said he could name thirty or more acts by which citizens of the country were deprived of their right of recourse to the courts against any injustice. The people had submitted to these conditions for many years without protest, but it was not right, he claimed.

The Liberal party stood for personal freedom, freedom of assembly, free speech and freedom of the press. He strongly urged party members to renew their acquaintance with the principles for which the party stood and to determine to resist encroachment on their rights.

CHERISH LIBERTIES
Mr. Davey declared also that it had been a custom for many years by third parties and others to criticize severely political parties and politicians. Those who spoke disparagingly of politics either had something to gain or were ill-informed. On the two political parties today rested the responsibility of maintaining the constitutional and democratic status of the country. It was the duty of every citizen, he stated, to cherish those liberties by taking an active interest in politics.

Members evinced keen interest in an enlightening account by Alderman W. T. Straith, M.P.P.-elect, of his recent experiences in the Orient and his impressions of the situation there. He expressed the opinion that Japan was not winning the struggle and thought that she might try to save her face with the nine powers by backing out if she could do so gracefully.

Wedding Is Solemnized At Duncan

Duncan United Church was prettily decorated with autumn flowers for the wedding last evening of Winnifred Mary, second daughter of Mrs. M. A. Hutchison and the late Mr. W. Hutchison, and Mr. William Harold Hawkes, elder son of Mrs. S. Hawkes and the late Mr. W. Hawkes, Victoria. Rev. W. F. Burns performed the ceremony in the presence of many relatives and friends.

BRIDESMAID'S GOWN
The bride's only attendant was her youngest sister, Miss Elsie Hutchison, whose long gown was of daffodil yellow georgette crepe with large open sleeves. A bandeau of yellow flowers was worn in her hair and she carried a sheaf of golden yellow chrysanthemums. Mr. James Sutherland was best man. The bride's cousins, Messrs. David and Leslie Duncan, and Mr. Wallace Flett were ushers. During the signing of the register, Miss Gwenie Owens sang "When You Come Home" (Weatherby).

A reception was held at the home of the bride's mother. Standing beneath a large wedding bell of white and silver, the bride and groom, assisted by Mrs. Hutchison and Mrs. Hawkes, received the congratulations and good wishes of their friends. The forty-five guests sat down to supper at tables decorated with Michaelmas daisies and chrysanthemums. The handsome three-tier wedding cake centred the bride's table.

Mrs. Hutchison wore a frock of wine colored satin with velvet sleeves and matching small velvet turban, and Mrs. Hawkes chose blue satin with matching hat. Both wore corsage bouquets of pale pink carnations and fern.

HONEYMOON TRIP
For the honeymoon trip, which will be spent in Vancouver and Seattle, Mrs. W. H. Hawkes wore a knitted suit of turquoise blue with navy blue accessories. On their return, the popular young couple will reside on Maple Street, Duncan.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Hawkes, Mr. and Mrs. R. Boyd McGill, Victoria; Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Stoddart, Saanich; and Mr. Sam Guthrie, M.P.P.-elect, and Mrs. Guthrie, Ladysmith.

LIGHT COLORS INCREASE APPARENT ROOM SIZE

In painting the walls of a small room, consideration should be given to the use of light colors, as they tend to increase the apparent size of such rooms.

Electric light cords should never be run under rugs or in door jambs because the cords will wear out quickly and may cause a short circuit which in turn may result in a fire.

BEING SPECIFIC

"Now, then!" roared the sergeant-major, as he dismissed the men; "you will parade again at 2 o'clock precisely. And when I say 2 o'clock precisely, I don't mean five past; I mean five to."

Wedding at St. John's Celebrated Last Night

Miss Clarendia Jeeves and Mr. Archibald P. Woollett Married—Bride and Groom Both Popular Members of A.Y.P.A.

St. John's Church was beautifully decorated by girl friends of the bride for the wedding of Clarendia Nicholas, only daughter of Mrs. T. Mattison, Vancouver, and of the late Mr. E. G. Jeeves, and Mr. Archibald P. Woollett, younger son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Woollett, Cameron Lake, which was solemnized last evening at 8 o'clock. Rev. G. R. V. Bolster officiated at the service, which was fully choral.

The bride, who was given away by her brother, was preceded up the aisle by the choir, who met her at the door, singing the hymn, "O Perfect Love." She looked lovely in her princess frock of white lace, with a short train. The bodice was finished with a high Elizabethan collar edged with seed pearls, and adorned with a pearl clip at the throat, and had long sleeves. Her veil of Brussels net fell in a full train from a Duchesse of Kent tiara of orange blossoms and seed pearls, and she carried a shower bouquet of white gerbers and roses.

THE ATTENDANTS

Miss Margaret Garratt, Port Alberni, a cousin of the bridegroom, was the only bridesmaid, wearing an Empire frock of rose taffeta with a blue velvet sash crossed in front and tied with long ends falling to the hem in front. The short jacket, with puff sleeves, and the skirt were edged with accordion pleated ruching. She also wore a becoming hat of blue stiffened net with a crown of matching flowers, and carried a Colonial bouquet of roses and pansies.

Mr. Herbert Woollett was his brother's best man, and Messrs. Ralph Freethy, Jonathan Slater and John Hooper were ushers.

Mr. G. Jennings Burnett presided at the organ, and as the register was being signed, Miss Iris Smith sang "Still as the Night."

WEDDING RECEPTION

A reception was held after the service at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. T. F. Huzzey, Cecilia Road, who wore a gown of periwinkle blue chiffon and lace, and a black hat and veil. Mrs. Mattison received the guests in a gown of royal blue lace, and a matching hat and veil, assisted by the bridegroom's mother, in a dress of deep blue velvet and a matching velour hat, and by the bride's grandmother, Mrs. G. Jeeves, who wore lavender satin and hand-made lace, and a mohair hat and veil. All four wore corsage bouquets of carnations and rosebuds.

A four-tier cake which centred the supper table had been made by the bride's grandmother, and was surrounded by pink tulle and rose petals, vases of pink roses, and crystal candelabra holding pink tapers completed the effective setting. Rev. G. R. V. Bolster proposed the toast to the bride.

After a honeymoon in California, for which the bride left in a rust crepe dress and a matching velour hat, and a brown swagger coat of travel tweed with a wolf collar, and brown accessories, Mr. and Mrs. Woollett will return to Victoria to live.

PROMINENT IN A.Y.P.A.

Both the bride and groom have been prominent in Anglican Young People's work of St. John's and the Cathedral. The bride is a past-president of St. John's branch, and the groom was for many years treasurer of the Cathedral branch.

Among their many gifts were a jardiniere from St. John's Sunday School, in which the bride taught,

WOMEN'S INSTITUTES

STRAWBERRY VALE

The first card party of the season was held on Monday evening in their hall at Colquitz under the auspices of the Strawberry Vale Institute, when prizes were won by the following: First lady, Mrs. J. Munro; first gentleman, Mr. George Gilham; second, Mrs. Sinclair and Mr. T. Francis. Refreshments were served at the close of the game by the convener, Mrs. S. J. Humphries, who was assisted by Mrs. L. Burrow and Mrs. G. Austin.

The committee of the Aged Women's Home acknowledged with sincere thanks at its meeting on Monday, a bequest of $2,000 from the late Mrs. James Dunsmuir, which the committee plans to use to furnish the sunrooms in the new wing which is now being built. The sunrooms will be a memorial to Mrs. Dunsmuir, who had always been such a generous friend to the institution.

Mrs. W. L. Clay, the president, was in the chair and routine business was conducted at the meeting. The Bishop Cridge Chapter, I.O.D.E., has also offered to donate a small gift to the furnishing. Several friends have announced their intention of furnishing rooms in memory of departed relatives, hoping by this means to help some others who need the care and attention which is given in the Home.

The present Home is filled to capacity all the time, and a number of applications have already been received by the secretary from those who wish to enter as soon as the new wing is ready for occupancy. Since the Home was opened in 1897 nearly 500 inmates have been received and taken care of by the committee and staff of the Home.

The committee for the month includes Mrs. W. L. Clay, convener; Mrs. D. C. Sabiston and Mrs. D. Scott.

Clubs-Societies

Wilkinson Road W.M.S.

The monthly meeting of the W.M.S. of Wilkinson Road United Church was held on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Rev. William and Mrs. Allan, Glyn Road. There was a good attendance of members, both from their own branch and the W.M.S. of Garden City United Church. Mrs. E. Boorman presided and the devotional period was led by Mrs. T. Hammond. A nominating committee for the election of officers for the coming year was appointed and included Mrs. A. Allison, Mrs. S. Jones and Mrs. W. D. Phillips. The herald on Africa was read by Mrs. Phillips, and during the afternoon Miss Elsie Fryatt rendered the solo, "The Stranger of Galilee." Mrs. A. E. Redman, the guest speaker, made reference to the many interesting episodes in the life of a minister's wife, and told of some of the experiences which she and her late husband had at Wilkinson Road and in other mission fields. The meeting closed with prayer by Mrs. Redman. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. J. Hoy and Miss Elsie Fryatt.

Catholic League

At the monthly meeting of the Victoria subdivision of the Catholic Women's League, held last night, arrangements for convening the refreshments at the Parish bazaar, to be held on December 3, 4 and 6 at St. Ann's Hall, were made. Mrs. M. E. O'Neill, president, was in the chair. A rummage sale will be held on Saturday and final plans were made. Arrangements for all the subdivisions to assist in sending a carload of provisions to Bishop Murray's parish in the drought area in Saskatchewan, were outlined. Special guests were Father A. B. Wood and Father C. T. Albury, who both spoke, and also Mrs. W. H. Munroe, diocesan president, who is here from Shawinigan Lake, and Mrs. W. McManus, diocesan organizer, who were on official visits. Mrs. J. J. O'Brien will visit the hospitals during the month.

Miss A. Margaret Knott Bride of Mr. W. K. Hardy

Belmont United Church Scene of Pretty Wedding
Last Evening—Bride and Groom to Make Their Home at Ocean Falls

Michaelmas daisies and rose pink chrysanthemums made a charming setting for the marriage of Miss Margaret, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Knott, 1250 Belmont Road, and Mr. William Kerin Hardy, eldest son of Rev. Frank W. Hardy and Mrs. Hardy, Ocean Falls, which took place in Belmont United Church last evening at 8:30 o'clock.

Miss Gestiana Evans played the wedding music, and as the register was being signed, Mrs. J. H. Warr, Cloverdale, a cousin of the bride, sang "All Joy Be Thine." The ceremony was conducted by the bridegroom's father, Rev. F. W. Hardy, assisted by Rev. Bryce Wallace.

During the service the bride and groom stood beneath a floral arch. The lovely bride, who was given away by her father, wore a form-fitting frock of white satin, slightly in train, fashioned with a yoke of lace and long sleeves coming to a point over the hands. Her veil of embroidered net fell from a strand of orange blossoms at the nape of her neck, and she carried a shower bouquet of pink rosebuds, pink and white carnations and lily-of-the-valley.

THE ATTENDANTS
Miss Kathleen Knott, in a bouffant frock of rose pink taffeta, worn with a brief jacket made with short puff sleeves, was her sister's bridesmaid. She wore a bandeau of pink flowers in her hair and carried a bouquet of rose pink carnations. Little six-year-old Corinne Moore, cousin of the bride, was a dainty flower girl, in a long frock of turquoise blue taffeta trimmed with rose, who wore a bandeau of rose flowers in her hair and carried a Victorian posy of rose pink and blue flowers.

Mr. Neil Perry was best man, and Mr. Frank Hardy, Vancouver, brother of the groom, and Mr. Roy Whittle escorted the guests to their pews, which were marked with posies of rose chrysanthemums tied with white tulle.

THE RECEPTION
Mr. and Mrs. Knott welcomed a large number of guests at their home after the ceremony, where Michaelmas daisies and rose chrysanthemums also predominated in the floral decorations. Mrs. Knott wore a gown of amber velvet and a matching hat, and a corsage bouquet of yellow roses, and Mrs. Hardy, Sr., was in black lace, and wore a black hat and a corsage bouquet of pink roses. During the reception, the bride and groom stood between baskets of flowers, and later supper was served from a table centred with the bride's cake, which stood between vases of pink rosebuds, and silver candelabra holding tall lighted white tapers.

After a wedding trip motoring on the Island, from where they will cross to Vancouver en route to Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. Hardy will make their home at Ocean Falls.

Traveling, the bride chose a smart Coronation blue frock and hat, worn with a grey caracul coat and navy blue accessories.

Several guests from Ocean Falls and Vancouver were present at the wedding of the popular young couple.

CHAPTER LIII

The Fordell station wagon was sweeping around the bend when Chief Carter brought his car to a stop and shouted at the waiting group of officers.

"What're you stopping here for? Why the—?" and suddenly saw the roadster lying on its side in the marsh all of ten feet below the roadbed. He was scrambling out for a closer inspection of the wreck when Polly grabbed his arm.

"Listen—she's stopping!" Polly said. Polly meant Sheila.

Only Polly had been consciously listening to the diminishing exhaust of the station wagon, but now they all realized that steady purr had been in their ears, for the silence throbbed with the sound that had either died down to an inaudible purr or ceased altogether.

"I've got five bucks," Carter said harshly, "that says she stopped to pick up the bird that was driving that car down there." He was eyeing the overturned machine. "Get the marker numbers?"

"Yes, sir—and the registration was in the pocket. That's Lieutenant Brell's car, chief."

Then they heard the noisy acceleration of the motor ahead.

Carter yelled, "Catch that station wagon—hold everybody in it!" and began to slam through the gears.

In thirty seconds every car had passed them, and when at last they rounded the bend Polly saw the tall lights of the swiftly receding parade of cars well beyond the toll house.

The toll collector shouted something as they whisked by, but his words were unintelligible to Polly. A remembered phrase flashed through her mind: "Longest bridge of its kind in the world." Three miles long. She had read that somewhere. Looking at it now, she could see the entire gigantic structure, actually two bridges spanning two separate arms of the Cooper River.

Carter's men had swept around the elbow turn and were now half way up the first bridge. The tall lights of the station wagon were nearing the top of the second span. The rising wail of a siren came to them faintly. Polly looked up at Carter. "What is it, the fireboat?" He shook his head. "Radio prowl car—from the city," he said, biting off his words. "The station wagon probably went through the toll gate at seventy or better and the collector turned in the alarm."

Minutes later, slipping down into the sweeping declivity between the two bridges, they saw the confusion of lights on the ridge ahead—headlights of cars drawn up on the opposite incline, flooding the central section.

"They got him trapped," Carter grunted. He was leaning heavily on the wheel. "He heard the siren and stopped up on top. Hope we don't pick up stray lead if there's any shooting."

Polly's hands were clenched tightly in her lap. She thought: "They've got him. They've got the man who murdered Norris Fordell and Mrs. Fordell and Maroo. The murderer—he's up there, surrounded." But whom had they trapped? Not Mel Dyson. She couldn't believe that. The specialists had said Mel was completely blind.

Carter's car screeched to a stop. They got out and climbed to the top of that second mountain of steel and concrete. Half a dozen men milled around the station wagon. It was close against the rail. Two long smears on the floor of the bridge told of the suddenness with which the brakes had been applied.

Trotting at Carter's side, Polly thought of the afternoon when she had found Tod hiding in the luggage compartment of the station wagon. A very long time ago that seemed now. How much had happened since!

Someone was calling to Carter. Polly looked up and saw two officers lifting an inert form from the station wagon. It was Sheila Cleaves. "She'll be O.K.," one of the men called down to Carter. "He hit her on the back of the head, but not too hard."

Carter halted, stood there, panting. At last he managed to say, "Dyson—did he get away?"

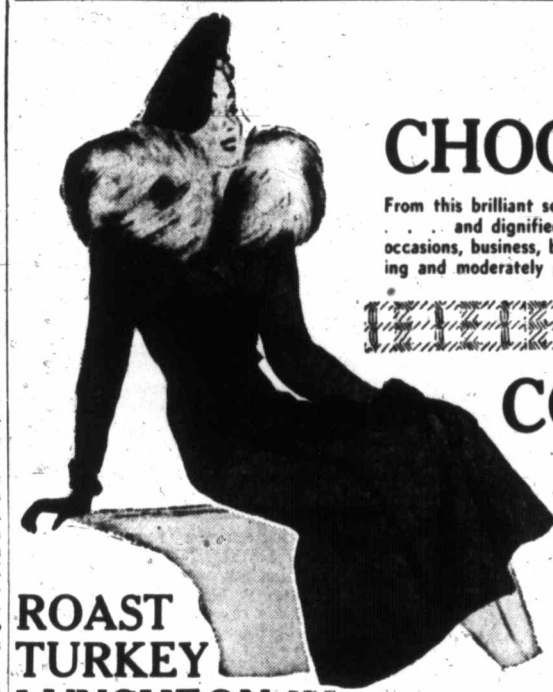

The officer shook his head, grimly. "He wasn't in any shape to get away. He's over there."

INCORPORATED 27 MAY 1870

chance this day, the results probably will be disappointing. This is a day that requires systematic planning and concentration to get results. Fickleness, noticeably among women, may cause many acrimonious discussions. Doing things on the spur of the moment is likely to be a waste of valuable time or material. Principles cannot be ignored nor unwritten laws broken with impunity this day, and it might be well for you to reflect on this, for you may be tempted to do one or the other. Some sudden thought perhaps will lead to your remembering something you mislaid, neglected to do, or something said that needs correcting. Married and engaged couples, and those who are in love, might do well to take some joke, at their expense, good naturedly this day.

If a woman and October 7 is your birthday, if you will realize that patience is a virtue you must possess in order to be happy, your chances for happiness are apt to be greatly enhanced. You ought to be very efficient in either domestic or office work. A gift for entertaining should make you a favorite socially and win for you a great deal of admiration. You probably love excitement, so anything that gives promise of being decidedly adventurous may cause you to take needless risks. Missionary, theatrical or artistic work may provide the means by which your ambition will be realized. Marriage perhaps will fill your life with many varying and happy interests.

The child born on October 7 has a mind of its own generally, and can be more easily prevailed upon than forced to do a thing. After adolescence, this child's powers of perception will increase greatly. In time a great amount of good fortune seems bound to make this youngster a very important person.

If a man and October 7 is your natal day, bright prospects appear to be ahead of you. Good work on your part ought to pay you handsomely. As an astronomer, botanist, engineer, lawyer, doctor, clergyman, author, journalist or manufacturer your results should be most gratifying.

HIGH-OR LOW

It was at the annual regimental reunion, and one of the guests was looking for an old comrade. "Have you seen Sidney?" he asked. "No," replied another comrade. "I've been looking high and low for him."

"Well, those are the places," the secretary chimed in. "He's been dead four months."

Dr. C. P. Brown, Formerly Of William Head, Visits Quarantine Station

Dr. Chester P. Brown, chief in charge of the Quarantine Branch, Department of Pensions and National Health, Ottawa, has been on the coast for several days, during which time he visited Victoria and Port Townsend.

Dr. Brown, who was formerly stationed at William Head, came west to inspect the station there, and perfect arrangements for the handling of ships arriving from Oriental ports, where the cholera situation is serious. At the same time, Dr. Brown took advantage of his visit to the coast and consulted United States health officials at Port Townsend concerning joint efforts to keep the disease out of North Pacific coast ports.

Dr. Brown left Victoria yesterday afternoon on his way back to Ottawa.

TUNA SURVEY ASKED

The run of albacore off the coast of Oregon and Washington, this season, has started an agitation with the object of having a fully equipped survey and prospecting expedition made in the extra-territorial waters for a distance of a hundred miles or more off shore. Instead of being a phenomenon, or freak run, the school of tuna which only recently yielded as much as fifteen tons, brought in by one halibut boat alone in four days, may be an annual migration, offering a rich harvest to the fish industry of the Northwest.

The new motorship Chile, for the Johnson Line, was launched at Stockholm in August. She is the sixth ship sent down the ways for the company. During the same month the Johnson Line accepted delivery of the new motorship Colombia. This ship is due on the Pacific Coast on her maiden voyage in December. The Chile will also be seen in the Europe-Pacific Coast service during the fresh fruit season, and from European ports to the River Plate the rest of the year.

FURTHER SUBSIDIES

The Japanese Communications Ministry is reported to have allotted a direct subsidy of 22,000,000 yen to Nippon Yusen Kaisha for construction of a 24-knot passenger liner of 26,000 gross tons, for California-Japan trade. Indicating the commencement of a fourth programme for upbuilding Nippon's cargo fleet, the ministry has started a survey to decide the advisability of increasing to 150,000,000 yen, from 70,000,000 yen, the subsidy for building Diesel freighters.

LOCOMOTIVES STREAMLINED

Canadian Pacific Railway Places First of Type Engine Into Service

MONTREAL, Oct. 6. — Power, speed and attractive semi-streamlined appearance are the outstanding features of thirty new 4-6-4 type locomotives, the first of which have recently been put into service by the Canadian Pacific Railway. The new locomotives are of advanced design, it was revealed today by H. B. Bowen, chief of motive power and rolling stock, Canadian Pacific Railway, Montreal, and will be capable of creating impressive records on the trans-continental run.

Designed by the motive power department of the Canadian Pacific Railway and constructed by Montreal Locomotive Works, the thirty new engines will be capable of hauling long trans-continental trains more than 800 miles without change of locomotive. They have been assigned numbers 2820 to 2849 inclusive.

Smooth semi-streamlining gives an air of grace and speed to the locomotive, which, with tender, weighs 659,500 pounds. The headlight, smokestack, domes and other parts do not project and the sloping lines of the front plates merge into the horizontal lines of runboards and boiler to convey an appreciation of the capacity for sustained high speed inherent in the design.

MAKE LONG RUNS

Hauling of heavy trains great distances without change of locomotives is one of the most important possibilities of the new locomotive. Such runs will include that of 813 miles over the heavy grades and curve conditions between Toronto and Fort William and the 832 miles between Winnipeg and Calgary.

Latest designs of boosters on five of the engines, 2838 to 2842, will assist in making smooth starts with heavy loads and in maintaining schedules. They are capable of any required speed and will haul more cars than the average freight locomotive. One of the locomotives with booster would have a tractive effort of 37,000 pounds and would haul 4,700 tons or approximately 100 loaded freight cars.

Without booster they have a tractive effort of 45,000 pounds. They have a boiler pressure of 275 pounds per square inch maintained by a firebox eleven feet by seven and a half feet, the size of a floor of an apartment house room. The boilers have adequate capacity to supply enough steam for heavy, fast, through passenger trains.

REMOVING AN OBSESSION

There are various definitions of obsessions, but, in a general way, an obsession might be described as feeling that you must do a certain thing which, when you think calmly about it, is a foolish, unnecessary or senseless thing to do.

For instance, as a youngster you may have had the feeling that you must touch each picket in a fence, step only on wood or stone going to school, or other equally foolish, or senseless act. Something inside you seemed to drive you or compel you to do this thing which even as a youngster you knew was "senseless." As you grew older you just did not

Horrors of Warfare Behind

Freighter Lost Her Direction And Went Ashore

SEATTLE, Oct. 6 (P).—Losing her way in heavy fog while bound here from Everett, the 5,630-ton inter-coastal freighter Charles Christenson went ashore off Magnolia Bluff, near Four Mile Rock, at 7:30 a.m. today. Tugs were sent to the scene.

Capt. Emil Hellesto, master, radioed the owner's representatives the vessel was hard aground. A light cargo was aboard. The ship was expected to be refloated at high tide late today.

obey the impulse; you recognized how senseless it was.

It is thus some senseless impulse developed in childhood persisting in another form perhaps into adult life that is called an obsession.

Unfortunately these obsessions take on forms that make the individual do things for which he is terribly ashamed because he knows, his calm mind tells him, that these acts are harmful to him. On the other hand, these obsessions, sometimes take on the form where the individual shows excessive cleanliness, orderliness, conscientiousness.

There are other cases where there is self-torment, excessive kindness one day and cruelty the next, fear and bravery and other contrasting conditions present.

That many of these tendencies are hereditary and others developed at an early age is the belief of most psychiatrists or mental specialists. It is from this standpoint—remembering that there is the hereditary or early beginning of the trouble—the pointing out to the individual when he is calm and composed, the senselessness of his acts, together with having him use his will power to overcome the impulse that brings about a cure in many cases.

You can see that this treatment may require a long time; investigating the history of the patient's parents and relatives, his early life and associates (at home and at school), any circumstances that may have upset his nervous balance, then bringing all these circumstances out into the light and discussing them frankly and freely, correcting any physical defect (infected teeth or tonsils) that may be sapping his nervous strength or energy.

It is a long process, sometimes requiring care in an institution, but the chances of recovery are very good.

An actress on tour became tired of paying railway fares for her small dog, so she bought a basket with ventilation holes. The first ticket collector at the station barrier asked what was in the basket. "Hats," replied the actress, and went on to the platform.

Before she had proceeded far she was recalled by the grinning ticket collector, who, pointing to a stump of fuzzy tail which wagged joyously from one of the ventilation holes, remarked: "You'll have to pay for that one with the feathers."

POPULAR TRIO ON OAK BAY SCREEN

Claudette Colbert, Melvyn Douglas
And Robert Young in "I Met Him in Paris"

Caught between two fires in the person of a blasé playwright and a conceited lady-killer author, Claudette Colbert has the time of her sweet life trying to choose between them in "I Met Him in Paris," sparkling comedy-romance, which opens tonight at the Oak Bay Theatre.

The pair of slightly mad admirers, played by Melvyn Douglas and Robert Young, join Miss Colbert in the snow-filled Swiss Alps, where they cavort on skis, sleds and skates, between hilarious sessions of love-making. The picture is mad and merry, and maintains the speedy pace for which its director, Wesley Ruggles, has become famous. Ruggles, it will be recalled, directed the two earlier Colbert successes, "The Gilded Lily" and "The Bride Comes Home."

DYNAMIC DRAMA COMING TO PLAZA

"Devil's Playground" Stars Richard Dix and Chester Morris in Navy Story

A powerful and dynamic drama, Columbia's "Devil's Playground," opens at the Plaza Theatre tomorrow and unassumingly lays claim to being one of the most entertaining films of the season. In breath-taking tempo it tells a story of sunken submarines and shattered loves—a tragic union of two events which have been stirring related in the brilliant script prepared by Liam O'Flaherty, Jerome Chodorov and Dalton Trumbo.

Richard Dix, as the rather glib and unsophisticated sailor, who is the "best deep-sea diver in the U.S. Navy," turns in a well-nigh perfect performance. Chester Morris, as Dix's pal and a Don Juan among girls of every port, provides the element of dramatic clash.

WEST TAKES TO MUSIC IN FILM

"Dodge City Trail" Is Saga of Old Wild West With Charles Starrett in Lead

The story of the Texas plainsman blasing a cattle trail across the old southwest is the adventurous theme of Columbia's "Dodge City Trail," the new screen attraction coming to the Columbia Theatre today. Charles Starrett, ace of Western stars, is in the leading role, while a new "he-man" singing cowboy, Donald Grayson, and attractive Marion Weldon are the featured players.

Grayson sings several songs of the range that were especially written for "Dodge City Trail" by Ned Washington and Sammy Stept. Others in the supporting cast are

TWO PERFORMANCES TO BE GIVEN HERE

Tomorrow night, at the Empire Theatre, the Victoria Grand Opera Association will present the popular light opera, "The Chimes of Normandy" (Les Cloches de Corneville). Under the baton of Basil Horsfall a brilliant chorus and orchestra will give delightful expression to Planquette's enchanting melodies, while the principals, chosen from among Victoria's finest singers, weave the charming story in song, dialogue and action.

For this introductory presentation of the season 1937-8, beautiful new costumes and scenery have been provided by the creative skill of Marjorie Barker and Mary Thorne Hughes and Jack Postuma. A second performance will be given on Saturday night.

Following is the cast: Fraser Lister, Arthur Jackman, Peggy Moore, Olive Batchelor, Norman Tyrrell, William Cobbett, George Farmer, Rita Shearing, Marjorie Barker, Doris Rawlins, Edith Hemmerow and Ronald Barker.

HOAGY CARMICHAEL MAKES FILM DEBUT

Hoagy Carmichael, well-known writer of such song hits as "Star Dust," "Lazy Bones," "Snowball," "Old Rocking Chair Has Got Me," among others, composed "Old Man Moon," sung in the Hal Roach-M-G-M super-feature, "Topper," and was induced to play the part of the piano player in the scenes with Constance Bennett and Cary Grant. Carmichael hesitated about going before the cameras, but he got into the spirit of the tuneful and funny sequence and gave a good account of himself. "Topper" comes to the Atlas Theatre tomorrow.

ATLAS Miriam Hopkins and THEATRE Joel McCrea, that popular romantic team, return to the screen of the Atlas Theatre in Samuel Goldwyn's hilarious comedy, "Woman Chases Man," which shows for the last time tonight.

CAPITOL The strange case of the THEATRE clipper ship, William Brown, lifted from the hidden archives of naval history, tells the story of a man who was forced to "play God" to a collection of helpless men and women. ## Newly-Chosen Governor

Newly-appointed Governor of British Guiana, Sir Wilfrid Jackson, is seen with Lady Jackson aboard the Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Britain, in which they sailed from Quebec after a brief visit to Canada.

Dee, the story is presented in "Souls at Sea," now at the Capitol Theatre.

DOMINION Showing for the last time today at the Dominion Theatre. "Back in Circulation" is Warner Brothers' picturization of an engrossing newspaper drama. Pat O'Brien and Joan Blondell are co-starring with a supporting cast that includes Margaret Lindsay, John Littel, Regis Toomey and Craig Reynolds.

New Ensemble Much Enjoyed

Mrs. Henry Boak, 1740 Coronation Avenue, was hostess at an enjoyable musical party last evening, when a new string ensemble was heard for the first time by other than its members, and two or three soloists and others made delightful further contributions to the programme.

Mrs. J. A. McCurdy, a newcomer to local musical circles, sang three much-enjoyed numbers, "Green Hills of Ireland," by Del Riego; "The Luxembourg Gardens," by Manning, and an aria from "Cavalleria Rusticana," and Mr. Pierre Timp gave great pleasure with his group of German Lieder and "The Toreador Song" from "Carmen."

The string ensemble's offering was the Handel minuet from "Berenice," and Spanish Dance No. 1, by Moszkowski, with which they opened the programme. Later Mrs. Boak played "Demande et Response" from Coleridge-Taylor's "Petit Suite," accompanied by the ensemble, which also closed the programme with a Waldteufel Valse. Mrs. Boak and Mrs. McCurdy also played two movements from Edouard Schmitt's Suite in E. Mrs. Pierre Timp and Mrs. J. A. McCurdy were the accompanists, and the personnel of the string ensemble was as follows: Mrs. J. S. Douglas, Mrs. A. H. Shotbolt, Mrs. T. Eric Jones, and Mrs. E. Bain, led by Mrs. Boak. Miss Jenny Wilkinson assisted, and Mrs. McCurdy was at the piano.

After the meeting, the executive will be entertained at tea, which will be attended by representatives of the executives of the four local chapters, Cowichan, Dogwoods, C. G. Palmer and Arbutus (Chemainus). Supper, followed by a reception, will be held in the evening. Provincial delegates and executive will be guests and all members of the order are welcome to attend. Following the provincial meeting, which will be held at the K. of P. Hall Friday morning, the guests will be entertained at luncheon and tea. The party will visit Fairbridge Farm to present a library to the school. All chapters in British Columbia have contributed toward the cost of the library.

SURVEY POLICE CRAFT FOR USE

Margaret S II May Be Altered Before Commissioned On West Coast

Acquired recently by the Provincial Government as the flagship of the British Columbia police afloat, the Margaret S II is now undergoing survey here to see what changes may be necessary in her accommodation and equipment before going into commission as a police patrol vessel.

Built seven years ago in the Maritimes, the Margaret S II is a powerful Diesel-engine craft, with 275 horsepower motor and a range of 6,000 miles without refuelling. She will be renamed the P.M.L. 14, and stationed on the Alberni Canal. Alterations to the vessel will likely be carried out by the force itself. The boat was taken over recently by the Attorney-General's Department, which paid $27,500 to Vancouver owners for the vessel. At present she is equipped for towing and fish packing.

RESCUED YOUTHS REACH CEEPEECE

Stanley Lorthrope and George Whitshire Are Reported Resting Comfortably

Two youthful prospectors who were rescued at the point of starvation in the hills of Zeballos Arm were resting comfortably yesterday at Ceepeece, opposite Nootka Island, on the West Coast of Vancouver Island.

They are Stanley Lorthrope, twenty-three, 200 East Fourth Street, Vancouver, and George Whitshire, twenty, 127 Beechwood Avenue, Victoria.

Edward Mason, seventeen, 4140 Victoria Drive, Vancouver, staggered into Zeballos mining camp, on the Zeballos River, at midnight Saturday with word of his two companions' plight. The young prospectors had been without food for six days in attempting to find their way to Zeballos.

Pilot R. L. "Ginger" Coote flew a rescue party of three men to a point seven miles from the starving prospectors. They were conveyed to Zeballos and from there by a mission vessel to Ceepeece for medical attention.

Young Mason, to whom the prospectors owe their lives, was reported to be none the worse for his experience.

Navy 3, Spencers 0.
Hudson's Bay 2, Gorge Hotel 1.

Navy footballers continued their successful march towards the Hayward Cup in the Wednesday League yesterday afternoon with a 3-0 victory over Spencers in first of a double-header at the Athletic Park. It was the second straight shutout for the sailors. In the second game, Hudson's Bay jumped into the win column by nosing out the Gorge Hotel, 2-1, in a comparatively slow exhibition.

SAILORS WIN AGAIN

Gaining a two-goal lead in the opening thirty-five minutes and then adding another after the change-over, the Navy registered its second straight shutout by blanking Spencers in the first of the twin bill at the enclosure, 3-0. It was a good, fast game with the sailors dominating play most of the time with well-engineered forward attacks. Spencers went on the offensive several times in both halves, but found a stubborn Navy back division to penetrate, and then, of course, they had to contend with a chap named Louis De Costa, ace of the local goalies.

During the early stages, De Costa made a great save from Collins on a pass from Brown. Brown got the rebound, but shot wide of the net from close quarters. After twenty minutes, Alex Ross, inside right, notched the first goal of the match with a high drive to the top corner of the net. Right after, Stewartson nearly pushed in another goal, but the ball hit the post and bounced back into play. He then saved from Eddie De Costa, but minutes later the young Navy pivot player tricked Raeside and beat the goalie with a fast left-footer. This made it 2-0 at the half.

Continuing on the offensive the sailors found the net for their final tally about fifteen minutes after the interval when Alex Ross scored from Murray's fine corner kick. During a Spencer attack McMillan was injured when he collided with Goalie De Costa and was taken from the game. He was replaced by Lionel Bradley. Spencers tried hard in the remaining minutes to avert a blanking, but several fine saves by De Costa spoiled their chances.

Bill Cull refereed and teams followed.

Spencers—Stewartson, Raeside, Cann, L. Bradley, Chapman, Lloyd, Brown, McMillan, Williams, Collins, Ball and Lionel Bradley.

Navy—L. De Costa, Kennedy, Cockrill, Marr, Robinson, Gagnon, Hubbert, Ross, E. De Costa, W. De Costa and Murray.

BAYS COME THROUGH

Having the edge throughout the entire game Hudson's Bay took a rather drab tussle from the Gorge Hotel, 2-1, in the second half of the double bill.

Neither team displayed any particular form and only flashes of combination were in evidence. The hotelmen broke into the win column ten minutes after the start, but the Bays came back strongly and sagged their opponent's temp twice to take over the lead which they held at the end of the game.

There was no scoring in the second half. The store eleven managed to keep the boys from the Gorge pretty well bottled up in their own territory. However, the blueshirts broke away on two or three occasions and tried hard to score.

Saddler, in the net for Gorge Hotel, was kept on his toes by the front line sharpshooters from the Bays, and pulled off some mid-season saves of shots that were really ticketed.

Belford gained the hotel's only score shortly after the opening whistle when he beat Renfrew from close in. Saddler failed to get hold of a long shot from the toe of Les Kennedy, and the score was tied at one-all.

Gordon Fish banged a hard one in from the right wing to put the storemen on top and complete the day's scoring. Play settled down to a fairly slow clip with neither side displaying

MRS. VARE IS DEFEATED IN U.S. TOURNEY

Six Times Champion Eliminated From National Golf Championship

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Oct. 6 (AP).—Spectacular matches took a toll of twenty-four players during fairway firing, with Mrs. Glenna Collett Vare, of Pennsylvania, and Miss Marion Miley, of Ohio, among third-round casualties in the 1937 women's national golf championship.

The veteran Philadelphia shot-naker, six times winner of the American golfing crown, was upset 2 and 1 by Mrs. Charles Newbold, of the Kansas State champion from Wichita.

Miss Miley, succumbed, 3 and 2, to the sharpshooting of Mrs. Opal S. Hill, of Kansas City.

Elimination of these two ranking stars featured progression of the tournament into the quarter-finals, scheduled for tomorrow over the Memphis Country Club course.

Mrs. Estelle Lawson Page, of Greenboro, N.C., medalist for the second successive time, defeated Jean Bauer, of East Providence, R.I., in the third round, 5 and 3, after trimming Mrs. George D. Brantley, of Jacksonville, Fla., 5 and 4, earlier in the day.

Mrs. Peggy Chandler, Dallas, Texas, staged the day's most sensational rally to enter the round of eight, where she engages Mrs. Page. Five down through nine holes, Mrs. Chandler settled down to business and beat Mrs. Reinert M. Torgerson, of Queens Valley, N.Y., on the twenty-first hole.

PATTY BERG WINS
Remaining in the contending ranks were Kathryn Hemphill, of Columbia, S.C., a 1936 semi-finalist; Patty Berg, of Minneapolis, who was runner-up to Mrs. Vare in 1935, and Mrs. Helen Lawson Shepherd of Los Angeles, a veteran campaigner, who turned back the "dark horse" challenge offered by Clara Callender, the California champion from Del Monte.

Miss Berg had to call her favorite shots into action to survive a challenge from Hilda Urbankte, of Austin, Texas, playing in her first national. Miss Urbankte led one up for nine holes, but slipped on the incoming side to lose, 3 and 1.

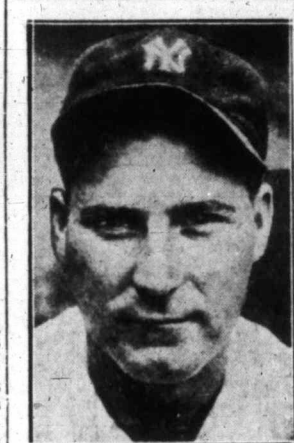

Two girls who have been constant traveling companions fought it out in the third round, with Miss Hemphill annexing a two-up verdict over Mrs. Jane Cochran Jameson, of Greenville, S.C.

Mrs. Gregg Lifer, of Pacific Palisades, Cal., warded off the threat of Barbara Ransom, of Stockton, Cal.

The Californian plays Mrs. Hill, who shot one under par golf for the two rounds, and Miss Berg clashes with Mrs. Shepherd in the lower bracket quarter-finals.

Topping the upper bracket is the Page-Chandler match. Miss Hemphill goes against Mrs. Newbold.

BOXERS WILL WORK TONIGHT

Johnny Hall and Dud Miller To Train for Saturday's Fight Here

Fresh from his great four-round draw with Ray Price, Seattle's clever little fighter and former golden gloves champion, Eddie Swartz, of Vancouver, is all set for his six-round mix here Saturday evening at the Tillicum Gymnasium with Dud Miller, hard-punching featherweight from Port Alberni. Miller worked out last night at the gym with Reg Mylrea, Navy boxer, and looked good to the ringers.

Swartz appeared in a preliminary bout to the Lesnevich-Matthews main event in Seattle Tuesday night and gave a great account of himself against Ray Price. Twice the Vancouver boy was sent to the canvas, but he came back both times and punched his way to a hard-earned draw. So it appears that Miller has a tough assignment to face when he steps through the ropes.

HALL TO ARRIVE

Johnny Hall, Seattle welterweight, will arrive today and will work out at the Tillicum Gym along with Miller and some of the other boys on the card. Hall is booked to meet Julius Troll, Vancouver, in another six-rounder. The third six-round affair has yet to be arranged as Charlie Williams, Duncan Indian, who was scheduled to appear, has withdrawn owing to lack of condition. Matchmaker Nick Lyster states that he will arrange to have a Vancouver and Seattle fighter fill in.

Two of the three four-round bouts have been completed. Tiny Speller will face Rolly Smith in the curtain raiser and George Lowe, Chinese boxer, will be pitted against George Haslam.

THUNDERBIRD WINS

TRENTON, N.J., Oct. 6 (AP).—Chief Thunderbird, 220, Saanichton, B.C., won the feature wrestling bout tonight, pinning Jake Patterson, 225, Syracuse, in two successive falls.

ENGLISH SIDE BEATS IRISH BY 3-0 SCORE

Representatives of League Blank Irishmen Before 20,000 Spectators

BLACKPOOL, England, Oct. 6 (AP).—Representatives of the English Football League triumphed, 3-0, over an Irish League eleven before a crowd of 20,000 spectators here today. The Irishmen had previously been defeated, 3-2, by a Scottish team, which also won a 1-0 decision over the English League.

A fast game found the Englishmen too clever for their opponents, but they were held scoreless during the first half. Seven minutes after the interval, Goulden, West Ham United inside forward, trapped a loose ball and fired in a low drive that completely deceived Moore in the Irish goal.

Only one minute more had elapsed when Mills, Chelsea centre-forward, increased England's lead following a smart passing movement by the forward line. Hall, Tottenham Hotspur star, tallied the third goal. While lying on the ground, he scooped the ball into the net in a melee.

In the first thirty minutes of the contest, Woodley, in England's goal, touched the ball only twice. The Irishmen did not lack energy, but contributed to their downfall by keeping the ball too close and starving their wingers.

The teams follow:
English League—Goal, Woodley (Chelsea); backs, Sproston (Leeds United), Barkas (Manchester City); halfbacks, Willingham and Young (Huddersfield Town), Bray (Manchester City); forwards, Gedard (Everton), Hall (Tottenham Hotspur), Mills (Chelsea), Goulden (West Ham United), Brook (Manchester City).

Irish League—Goal, Twomey (Newry Town); backs, Lavery and Fulton (Belfast Celtic); halfbacks, Doherty, Carley and Martin (Derry City); forwards, Kernaghan and MacLinden (Belfast Celtic), Shearer, Duffy and Kelly (Derry City).

CARL HUBBELL GOES TO SHOWERS DURING OFFENSIVE IN SIXTH

Dick Bartell's Error Starts McCarthy's Crew on Its Way to Seven-Run Rally—Great Pitching Duel Witnessed by 60,000 Fans Until Disastrous Inning—DiMaggio Gets Two Singles

Associated Press Sports Editor

YANKEE STADIUM, New York, Oct. 6 (AP).—Loopholes in the usually impeccable defense of the Giants, with a burst of base-hit fire, enabled the world champion Yankees to rout Carl Hubbell and romp off with an easy 8 to 1 victory today in the opening game of the world series. A surprisingly large crowd of 60,573 saw the game.

For five frames Hubbell held the Yankee powerhouse to one single and outpitched Vernon Gomez as the Giants gained a one-run margin.

In the sixth inning the Yankees took advantage of the breaks to drive Hubbell from the box, roll up seven runs, and remove all doubt about the outcome of the game. Hubbell paved the way for his own downfall by lapsing in controlling the passing of Gomez at the outset of the fatal sixth. Then, after Frank Crosetti singled to left, came the costliest "break" of the inning. With "Red" Rolfe at the plate, Captain Gus Mancuso of the Giants had Gomez trapped far off second base with a snap throw to Dick Bartell, only to have the Giant shortstop drop the ball. Gomez scrambled to safety, Rolfe singled to left to fill the bases on a short fly that "Jo-Jo" Moore couldn't quite reach, and the doors were wide open.

DIMAGGIO CONNECTS

Joe DiMaggio cracked the first pitch to left centre, to bring home the first two runs. DiMaggio got an extra base on the throw-in, Lou Gehrig was passed intentionally to fill the bases again, Bill Dickey scratched a single, Cyril Hoag hit into a force play at the plate, and George Selkirk belted a single to right that brought home the fourth and fifth runs.

Selkirk's base hit drove Hubbell from the box. A slip-up in announcing the southpaw's replacement forced the Giants to send Harry Gumbert to the box as first reliever, instead of Dick Coffman, who was Manager Bill Terry's intended selection. Gumbert pitched to only one batsman, Tony Lazzeri, whose grounder went through Whitehead's legs for an error and brought over another tally.

Coffman took over and promptly forced in the seventh run by walking Gomez and Rolfe.

An even dozen Yankees went to the plate. The seven runs were manufactured by only five singles, combined with two errors and four bases on balls. Gomez, by walking twice in the same inning, set a world series record.

Tony Lazzeri's home run into the left field stands in the eighth off Al Smith, fourth and last hurler for the Giants, topped off the decisive triumph of the champions.

The Yankees collected only seven base hits, one more than their rivals, but they made them count. Their sixth-inning outburst broke up what looked like one of the great southpaw duels of world series history.

SECOND DEFEAT

Hubbell's defeat was his second at the hands of the Yankees in as many years, but his first in three opening game assignments. It put the issue for tomorrow's game squarely on Cliff Melton, freshman southpaw, who will meet Charles Ruffus ("Red") Ruffing, Yankee right-hander.

The victory for Gomez, who was in danger only once, was his fourth straight in world series competition. The slender Cuban never has been defeated in a championship game. He needs only one more triumph to match the world series records of Jack Coombs and Herb Pennock.

The Giants collected three of their six hits and their only run in the fifth, when a doubly play aided Gomez in escaping from serious trouble. Jim Rippel and John McCarthy started this frame with base hits. With runners on first and third and none out, Rippel scored as Mancuso grounded into a double play, Crosetti to Lazzeri to Gehrig. Whitehead stroked a two-bagger down the right field corner, but Hubbell rolled out to Gehrig.

Otherwise no Giant got past first base. Mel Ott and "Hank" Leiber were held hitless. Gomez didn't issue a pass until Rippel walked with two down in the ninth. Hubbell started shakily but quickly recovered control. Crosetti walked and DiMaggio singled in the first frame, but Gehrig and Dickey were easy victims on high flies to Leiber. Pitching deliberately and seemingly getting better as he went along, Hubbell retired fourteen consecutive batters before the sixth.

FOUR EARNED RUNS

Four of the seven Yankee runs in the sixth were earned, but with better support from Bartell and Whitehead Hubbell might have escaped real damage. He was on the spot so quickly he didn't have either time or opportunity to regain his poise or mastery.

Despite heavy overnight rains, overcast skies throughout the morning, and a mist that made visibility poor for the outfielders, the huge Bronx Stadium housed a much bigger crowd than had been expected. The paid attendance was only about 6,000 short of the world series record of 66,669, set in a Sunday game here last year.

The total gate receipts of $234,256 compared with the record of $240,591, set simultaneously with last October's crowd mark.

The players' "cut" for the first game amounts to $119,470.56 and indicates a record. Last year the total player pool, taken from receipts for the first four games only, amounted to $460,066.

The farmer's daughter was coming up the lane. She was clad in overalls, from the pockets of which bulged bunches of waste and sundry wrenches, screwdrivers and other tools. In her hand was a satchel of iron tools.

"Where are you going, my pretty maid?" asked a passerby.

"I'm going a-milking, sir," she said.

"But why all the tools, my pretty maid?"

"Trouble with the darn milking machine," she said.

In analyzing the play of experts some sports writers have designated an area within 125 yards of the hole as the scoring zone. These writers would have you believe that the main difference between experts is to be found in the way they play shots of 125 yards or less.

According to this, practically all of the tournament pros are on an equal, that is, one has no advantage over another until the scoring zone is reached. It is true that most of the birds and eagles are made by exceptionally good approach shots or the holing of long shots. In other words, it is misleading to say that scoring depends entirely on any one part of the course. If this were true, we would have all kinds of champions.

Paul Runyan is good enough to beat any player around the greens, but his lack of power and length through the fairway is a big handicap. Jimmy Thomson has more than enough length, but lacks the necessary consistency in finishing a hole. If these two players could combine their good points they would be almost unbeatable. Then scoring would be done from tee to green.

SHREWD FISHERMEN

Two Welshmen were fishing about two miles from land. They had an excellent catch. Thomas said to David: "We'd better mark the spot in case we come out tomorrow."

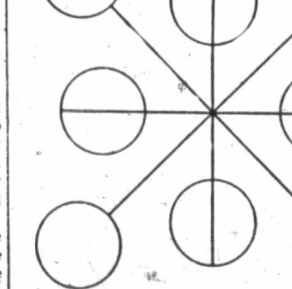

On reaching the shore Thomas asked: "Did you mark the place?"

"Yes," said David, "I put a chalk mark on the left-hand side of the boat."

To which Thomas replied: "Silly, we might not have the same boat tomorrow."

THREE THEATRES CLOSED BY STRIKE

Theatre owners, who called at his office and presented their side of the case.

Hon. G. S. Pearson and Adam Bell, his deputy, were in Vancouver looking into the situation there at first hand. Spokesmen for the Government said the Government was fully apprised of the facts, but declined all comment at this time.

STRIKE MIGHT SPREAD
VANCOUVER, Oct. 6 (P).—An international union official from Toronto said tonight unless the strike of motion picture projectionists in British Columbia was settled "soon," it "might" spread across Canada and into the United States.

W. P. Covert warned of the possible strike extension after negotiations between theatre operators and the British Columbia Projectionists' Society remained deadlocked over wage increase demands.

Covert, second vice-president of the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees and Motion Picture Operators, came here in connection with the society's strike, called yesterday and today.

The society is affiliated with the international alliance and the American Federation of Labor.

"We don't intend to lose this strike," Covert declared. "Unless it is settled very soon it will possibly spread to theatres operated by Famous Players Corporation throughout Canada and the United States because independent-operated movie houses were local problems."

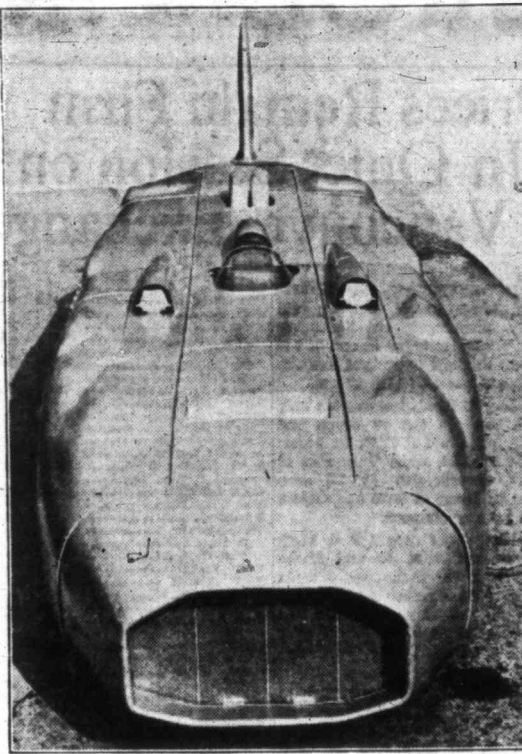

Covert said if the strike did spread outside British Columbia the union would consider an attempt to stop entry into Canada of negative films from Hollywood by calling a strike in the California city's film manufacturing industry.

With the exception of eight independent-operated theatres, movie houses throughout the province were dark tonight.

Some 140 projectionists in the remaining forty-two theatres were on strike. They demanded an immediate 10 per cent wage increase or an alternative 6 per cent this year with 3 per cent each year for the next two years.

Famous Players Corporation operates twenty-six theatres in British Columbia and some three hundred throughout Canada.

POLO TOURNEY TO BE STAGED

Island Championship Meet To Be Held at Foul Bay Grounds Next Week

Final games of the Vancouver Island polo championship will be run off Sunday and Monday at the Victoria Centaurs' polo grounds on Poul Bay Road. On Sunday the strong team from Duncan will oppose the Centaurs and the winners will meet Esquimalt Club on Monday for the handsome challenge cup. There is every indication that the two-day meet will provide some spectacular play for the spectators.

Esquimalt Club, who clashes with the winners of the first game, have a strong squad, and, led by their hard-hitting captain, Deane-Freeman, can be depended upon to make their opponents ride their best in search of victory. Both games start at 2 o'clock.

Monday evening a polo dance will be held, under the patronage of Commander and Mrs. C. Beard, R.C.N., and Brigadier-General and Mrs. D. J. MacDonald, at the Esquimalt Athletic Hall, Fraser Street. During the course of the evening, the challenge cup will be presented to the captain of the winning team. The cup is now in possession of Major Piddington, captain of the Wychbury Club, who won it last year from Duncan. Invitations to the dance may be had by phoning G 1674.

Line-ups of three teams follow: Duncan—G. G. Bais (captain), Dick Bais, H. Carberry and B. Dennis.

Victoria—Hazelwood (captain), J. Edgell, Dr. Mitchell and D. Wilson.

CONDEMNED AS VIOLATOR

In reply to the provisions of the Nine-Power Treaty of February 6, 1922, regarding principles and policies to be followed in matters concerning China, and to those of the Kellogg-Briand Pact of August 27, 1928.

Another development touching upon American dealings with foreign powers was the disclosure that Soviet Russia has bought more than $10,000,000 in arms, munitions and implements of war in the United States during September.

FOR WAR VESSELS
More than half of the purchases were for war vessels—apparently the first materials and equipment for two battleships which the Moscow Government sought, some time ago, to buy in this country.

Disclosure of the Russian purchases in the State Department's monthly report of export licences was the first indication that the American Government had consented to the transaction.

LIBERALS RETURNED IN ONTARIO POLLING

Hon. Peter Heenan, Minister of Lands and Forests, in Kenora, and Hon. T. B. McQuesten, Minister of Highways, in Hamilton-Wentworth, were re-elected.

FORMER PREMIER WINS
George S. Henry, former Conservative Premier, retained his seat for York East and appeared assured of another term as House leader of the opposition unless a seat is found for the new party leader.

DREW IS DEFEATED
Sharing defeat with the leader was George Drew, his chief rival at the convention. Colonel Drew contested Wellington South as an independent Conservative after breaking with Mr. Rowe over the latter's stand on labor organizations.

One of the major issues of the election was Premier Hespurn's attitude towards the Committee for Industrial Organization, headed by John L. Lewis. When the United Automobile Workers, a union affiliated with the C.I.O., called a strike in Oshawa, Mr. Hespurn took a strong stand against what he termed the lawless methods of the organization.

Re-election of Arthur Roebuck, K.C., in Toronto Bellwoods, and of David Croft, K.C., in Windsor-Walkerville, was conceded early in the counting. Mr. Roebuck, former Attorney-General, and Mr. Croft, former Minister of Welfare, Labor and Municipal Affairs, resigned from the Ontario Cabinet at Premier Hespurn's request last Spring at the time of the Oshawa General Motors strike.

Lionel Conacher, the "big train" of hockey and football fame, was elected in Toronto-Bracondale by a small majority as a supporter of Premier Mitchell Hespurn, removing the seat from the Conservative column.

MENTIONED FOR POSTS
Two of three men mentioned by Premier Hespurn as slated for Cabinet posts after the election won their seats. They were Eric W. Cross in Haldimand-Norfolk and Harold Kirby in Toronto-Eglinton. The third, Colin A. Campbell, ran a close race in Addington, but lost out to W. A. Black, former Conservative speaker.

Former Conservative Cabinet ministers met varied treatment at the hands of electors. The three who survived the 1934 election retained their seats, while two of those defeated in 1934 regained their seats.

Leopold Macaulay, former Minister of Highways, was re-elected in York South, and George H. Chalmers, former Provincial Secretary, in Grenville-Dundas. Along with Mr. Henry they will find two more of their old colleagues back, William Finlayson, of Simcoe East, and T. L. Kennedy, of Peel.

Play-by-Play Description

FIRST INNING
Giants—Moore grounded out to Gehrig, unassisted. Bartell singled on a sharp grounder just inside the third-base line. Ott lifted a high fly to Gehrig. Leiber fanned, swinging at a fast ball with the count two and two.

No runs, one hit, no errors, one left.

Yankees—Crosetti walked, the fourth ball being high and outside. Rolfe fanned, swinging at a screwball. DiMaggio singled past Ott. Crosetti stopped at second. Gehrig lifted a high fly to Leiber in short right centre. Dickey drove a long fly to Leiber, who made a nice running catch.

No runs, one hit, no errors, two left.

SECOND INNING
Giants—Ripple flied to Hoag. McCarthy lined to Lazzeri, who took the ball off his shoetops. Mancuso lined to Selkirk.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Yankees—Hoag grounded out, Bartell to McCarthy. Selkirk bounced out, Whitehead to McCarthy. Lazzeri was thrown out by Hubbell, who made a nice gloved-hand stab of Lazzeri's hopper.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

THIRD INNING
Giants—Whitehead was thrown out when Crosetti stopped his bounder. Hubbell slashed a long drive but Selkirk caught it on the bank in front of the stands. Moore was thrown out. Gomes to Gehrig.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Yankees—Gomes grounded out, Whitehead to McCarthy. Crosetti flied to Moore with the count three and two. Rolfe hoisted a short fly to Moore.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

FOURTH INNING
Giants—Bartell flied deep to Hoag on a pretty play, Lazzeri to Gehrig. Tony grabbed a tricky hopper on the run behind second base. Leiber popped to Lazzeri, who backed up on the grass for the catch.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Yankees—DiMaggio rolled out, Whitehead to McCarthy. Gehrig fanned, swinging while the crowd roared. Dickey grounded out, McCarthy, unassisted.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

FIFTH INNING
Giants—Jimmy Ripple dropped a single into right field. McCarthy singled past Lazzeri, sending Ripple to third. Mancuso hit into a double play, Crosetti to Lazzeri to Gehrig, while Ripple crossed the plate with the first run of the game. Whitehead lashed a double off the right-field line. Hubbell grounded out to Gehrig, unassisted.

One run, three hits, no errors, one left.

Yankees—Hoag lifted a high fly to Bartell. Selkirk hoisted to Ripple in short right. Lazzeri went down swinging as Hubbell retired the Yankees in order for the fourth straight inning.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

SIXTH INNING
Giants—Moore dribbled a single through the middle of the diamond. Bartell flied to Selkirk. Ott fouled to Dickey. Leiber flied deep to Hoag.

Yankees—Gomes walked with the count three and two. Crosetti singled sharply to left, Gomes stopping at second. It was the first hit off Hubbell since the first inning. Rolfe up. Mancuso threw to Bartell and Gomes was trapped off second. The Giant shortstop dropped the ball, however, and was charged with an error as Gomes scrambled back to second safely. Rolfe dropped a single in short left with the count three and two, filling the bases. DiMaggio cracked the first pitch to left centre for a single, scoring Gomes and Crosetti. Rolfe ran to third and DiMaggio made second on the throw-in. Bartell cut off Leiber's throw after the centrefielder had juggled the ball and just failed to catch DiMaggio at second. Gehrig was intentionally passed to fill the bases again.

Whitehead failed to hold Dickey's sharp grounder as it went for a single, scoring Rolfe and leaving the bases filled. Hoag grounded to Ott and DiMaggio was forced at the plate, Ott to Mancuso.

Selkirk singled sharply to right, scoring Gehrig and Dickey and sending Hoag to third. It was decided to take Hubbell from the box and he was replaced by a right-hander, Dick Coffman.

The announcer erroneously reported Harry Gumbert had been selected to replace Hubbell.

Manager Bill Terry, of the Giants, came out for a conference at the plate with the umpires before play was resumed. The hitch was over the announcement Gumbert was to pitch. Accordingly Gumbert was ordered to the mound instead of Coffman.

Lazzeri's sharp grounder went through Whitehead for an error, scoring Hoag and sending Selkirk to third. Coffman replaced Gumbert in the box. Gomes walked, the fourth ball being low. It was his second pass of the inning and filled the bases again.

Crosetti lifted a short fly to Moore. Rolfe walked with the count three and one, forcing Selkirk across the plate. DiMaggio lined to Leiber, in deep centre.

Seven runs, five hits, two errors, three left.

SEVENTH INNING
Giants—Ripple flied to Hoag in short left. McCarthy rolled out, Gomes to Gehrig. Mancuso hoisted to DiMaggio in short centre.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Yankees—Gehrig walked with the count three and two, the fourth ball being wide. Dickey walked on four straight pitches and the Giants bullpen went into action again. Hoag hit into a double play, Ott to Whitehead to McCarthy, as Gehrig reached third. Selkirk grounded out, Bartell to McCarthy.

No runs, no hits, no errors, one left.

EIGHTH INNING
Giants—Whitehead flied to DiMaggio, Berger, batting for Coffman, hoisted a high fly to DiMaggio. Moore dropped a Texas League single in left. Bartell lined to Hoag.

No runs, one hit, no errors, none left.

Yankees—Al Smith, a southpaw, went to the box. He was the fourth pitcher for the Giants. Lazzeri hit a home run into the lower left-field stands. Gomes flied to Ripple, who made a one-handed stab after misjudging the ball. Crosetti lined to Ott. Rolfe hoisted to Moore.

One run, one hit, no errors, none left.

NINTH INNING
Giants—Ott went down swinging. Leiber lined to DiMaggio. Ripple walked, the fourth ball being low. McCarthy grounded out to Gehrig, unassisted.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Hits First Homer Of the Series

TONY LAZZERI

VETERAN second baseman of the Yankees, who crashed out the first homer of the series yesterday against the Giants in the Yankee Stadium in the eighth inning with the bases empty. Tony lined one of Dick Coffman's slants far out into the bleachers. He also turned in a grand defensive game at the key-stone position for the champions.
